Clergy Column

For all of the hunters out there, you will find a great insert in this week's bulletin that tells the story of St. Hubert, the patron saint of hunters, and it offers some profound prayers that you will surely have time to pray out in the deer stand. Check it out!

Next week I will be at the next session of Good Leaders/Good Shepherds, the program designed to sharpen the administrative skills of parish priests. This time we will be meeting in Crookston at the Crookston Inn. If there is an emergency, you can reach by dialing the emergency number listed on the front of the bulletin.

Here's a final thought from this Sunday's Gospel: "The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Note: I have run out of Masses to say! They have all been scheduled. If you would like a Mass offered for someone who has died, or for a living friend or relative who is in need of prayers, now is the time to request them. Typically, we request $5.00/Mass as the stipend. You can drop your Mass requests in the offertory basket.

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - MATTHEW 23:12
Jesus gave His life to serve, not to be served. Putting other's needs before our own needs is a sign of becoming a mature disciple, of following Jesus' example. Humility is really a sign of a strength. By putting other's needs first we declare to the world that we are putting our complete trust in God. When we align our thoughts and actions with God's plan for us, the result is Joy and Peace.
