

SPEAKING LEADERS

Lorna Kohler has devoted a lifetime to exploring the intersection of spirituality and the arts. She studied music, dance and drama as a child and collaborated on numerous performing arts projects as an adult. She started teaching kindergarten music while still in high school, taught thousands of students in public and private schools, and continues to offer private music lessons at her studio in the Santa Cruz Mountains of California. While living in Santa Cruz, Lorna and her two young daughters gathered with two other families for a weekly prayer group that continued until all the children left home to begin their own adult lives. Lorna led rhythms and singing at Shasta CFO and served as treasurer on the Council Ring. She is grateful to Barbara Thomas for inviting her to Autumn JFO in 2018 and 2023 and looks forward to sharing her spiritual journey with the Autumn JFO community in 2024.

Danielle Jones grew up in a small town in Ohio and moved to California in the early 80's. She was invited to camp by her mom over 10 years ago and ever since her first camp experience finds JFO to be an essential part of her spiritual journey, growth and well-being.

JFO is her chosen family of the heart, and she feels blessed to be counted a member of this beloved community. Danielle is committed to the values of Service, Growth, and Compassion, which have shaped her perspective and guided her journey. It is due to this sacred purpose; she has dedicated over 25 years to the field of education. With life's purpose centered around abiding in love, she aims to spread positivity and light wherever she goes. Through her strengths of being a learner, fostering connections, and an unwavering belief, the vision of Glenn Clark to be Athletes of the Spirit coalesces with Danielle's aspirations for her life's journey. Currently residing in Oakdale, CA, with her loving family, including her husband, son, and mother, she also holds the cherished title of being Robby's grandma. A daughter and son-in-law complete her beautiful familial circle.

Our Vision

Autumn JFO at Lake Tahoe camp creates a safe place in which all people are invited to experience unconditional love as taught and lived by Jesus Christ and all other great spiritual leaders. We explore and share our experience of God's presence in our lives through the camp program envisioned by Glenn Clark, as we become "athletes of the Spirit" in our daily lives. We practice the power of shared prayer for healing and peace.
