

SUFFRAGE GARDEN PARTY.*Kings County Political Equality League
Sing and Talk.

The Kings County Political Equality league gave a garden party yesterday afternoon on the grounds surrounding Mrs. Stephen B. Post's residence, 265 Gates avenue. The shower drove the guests from the lawn but it did not entirely spoil their enjoyment. An excellent musical and literary programme had been arranged for the occasion, and the suffragists and their friends adjourned to the parlors, where they were entertained. Miss Eleanor Hooper played a Hungarian rhapsody and one or two other selections and Miss Allen sang two ballads. Miss Medler gave a couple of piano solos and Miss Mendes recited "Independence Bell." A farce, "The Charge of the Light Brigade," was given by Miss Esther Andrews; Miss Maud Staples, Miss Grace Cary Webster, Miss Madeline Baker and Miss Gertrude Monroe, all robed in white, who, while Miss Mendes recited the poem, gave an amusing illustration of it. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of Bensonhurst made an address on the suffrage work, urging organization and earnestness of purpose as the best means of obtaining desired results in the next campaign.

The garden party was given to raise funds for the state campaign work and despite the rain it was quite successful, a large number attending during the hours which it continued, from 3 to 7. The hostess and her daughter, Miss Helen Post, who has just returned from Paris, assisted the reception committee in looking after the comfort and welfare of the guests and in the picturesque arrangement of the grounds assistance was lent by Messrs. William A. and William H. Earl.

The cake and ice cream table was in charge of Mrs. Isaac Howland, assisted by Miss Charlotte Chapman, Miss Andrews and Miss Anna Willets; the Bedford league table, under the charge of Miss Craft. Mrs. Augustus Merritt, while Miss Talbot and Mrs. Brown disposed of lemonade, iced tea and candy, and Mrs. Isaac Cary sold campaign literature. The committee of arrangements included Mrs. Isaac H. Cary, Mrs. Cornelia K. Hood, Mrs. Andrew J. Perry, Mrs. P. D. Hackstaff, Miss Cassidy, Miss Talbot, Miss Craft, Mrs. N. H. Chapman and Mrs. Eveilyn O'Connor.
