

The Buffaloes' Hall of Fame Inductee Superintendent LeRoy Williams

Superintendent LeRoy Williams is the beloved son of the late Deacon Arthur Williams Sr. and Missionary Bobbie Williams. Superintendent Williams is the beloved husband of the lovely First Lady Deloris Williams. Together they have shared twenty-four wonderful years of matrimony. He is the cherished father of two sons, one daughter, two daughters-in-love, five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

He is a 1965 graduate of Peake High School, and a former student of Henderson State University in Arkadelphia, AR. He's an alum of Charles Harrison Mason Bible College in Memphis, Tennessee. After forty years of loyal and gainful employment, Superintendent Williams was blessed to retire from Reynolds/Alcoa Aluminum Company in Gum Springs, Arkansas.

In 1970 Superintendent LeRoy Williams was drafted into the United Army. He honorably served his Country as a Medical Corpsman in West Berlin Germany. In 1974 Superintendent Williams was called to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ at the age of twenty-six. In 1978 He was called to his first pastorate at the Vaden Church of God in Christ, Vaden AR. In 1982 He was called to his second pastorate at the Manchester Church of God in Christ in Arkadelphia, AR. From 1995 to the present, Superintendent Williams was called to serve as the General Superintendent of the Arkadelphia District Churches of God in Christ. From 1997 to the present, Superintendent Williams was called to his third pastorate, at the Greater Tate Temple Church of God in Christ in Arkadelphia. In 2010 Superintendent Williams was called to serve as the 2nd Administrative Assistant to Bishop Frank J. Anderson Jr. the Jurisdictional Prelate of Arkansas 2nd Jurisdiction Church of God in Christ. In 2022 to present Superintendent Williams was elevated to serve as the 1st Administrative Assistant to Bishop Frank J. Anderson Jr. Superintendent Williams previously served as the Vice President of the African American Clergy Conference in Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Much work has been completed under his charge to God and Humanity. His passion for souls is exemplified in his walk with God and Humankind.

But above all else, Superintendent Williams is a born-again servant of the Lord. He was saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost at the early age of fifteen, and has since been a faithful man of God who walks in dignity and integrity. Superintendent Williams has been anointed and appointed by God, for such a time as this. He is "GOD'S MAN." His favorite song is "He's Done So Much for Me I Cannot Tell It All." His favorite scripture is Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy path."
