

Subtypes

Money – From Fear to Love
Margaret H. Smith, PhD.

	Self-Preservation	Social / Group	Sexual / One-on-One
1	Disciplined I respect my budget, but I am not ruled by it. I take care of business, but I also make sure to take care of others and honor my own fire.	Principled My responsibility to my family and community and my desire for respect motivate me to take care of personal financial matters.	Corrective I am excited to pay my bills and hit my budget. With a stable financial foundation, I can pursue my passion confidentially.
2	Caretaking I make sure that everyone is comfortable and well cared for.	Connecting I share my resources so that everyone can have a decent life.	Captivating I don't hesitate to buy what I love, but I also make sure to save some money and stay within budget.
3	Achieving I am willing to work hard, but insist on honoring my fire and making a difference to others.	Heroic Not only do I earn a living by serving others, I also honor my own fire.	Dazzling I have confidence and energy to sell my services and earn a good living.
4	Aesthete Money is for my well-being, but it is also to serve others and to energize and enliven me.	Outsider I do not have a problem earning a lot of money as long as I am earning in a way that serves. I always have the option to deploy my wealth generously.	Dramatist Money enables me to live an intensely satisfying and joyful life. I do not have to create disruptions to live a vital life.
5	Ascetic Money enables me to be self-sufficient, so that I can be a contributing member of society.	Expert My social connections enable me to understand social trends. I take the time to learn how money works so that I can better serve.	Low Roller I live for today, like I could die tomorrow, but I also plan ahead in case I do make it to tomorrow!
6	Guard Once I prepare for what can go wrong, I relax and trust that things will be ok.	Ally My social safety net is one form of support that I have. I also work to take care of myself, so that I can be self-reliant.	Partner I throw caution to the wind when I am impassioned, and I also remember that my gifts serve the greater good.
7	Optionee I plan ahead, but also recognize that the best laid plans can be derailed, and I am willing to adapt my plan as needed.	Playboy I am adaptable, but I do not hesitate to envision where I would personally like to be in a few years and work to make it come true.	Juggler I focus on what I care about, but am willing to put attention and energy into certain critical routine maintenance areas, such as my diet, health and money.
8	Heavyweight I save and invest and have resources so that I can live to my fullest potential as a contributing member of society.	Big Boss Having wealth enables me to serve myself and others better.	High Roller My creative energy drives me to invest in the future. With successful saving and investing, I can continue creating.
9	Steady I acknowledge and appreciate all the various forms of wealth in my life, and experience abundance.	Unsung Hero We are each affected by others, and my participation really matters. I feel optimistic about our future.	Grooving There is no such thing as failure. We can learn from everything that happens to us in our lives.