* ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY – ALL LEAGUES ****

*A parent/guardian must attend a mandatory information meeting which will be scheduled before the start of leagues

*Each player and parent in either baseball/softball program is required by law to read, sign and return a Concussion Acknowledgement Form along with registration form. If participant does not turn in concussion form, they will NOT be allowed to participate in this program. Form can be found on Chilton AC website: www.ChiltonAC.com

*For more information on the baseball and softball program contact Chris Grube – grubecl@gmail.com or visit: www.chiltonac.com

*Please be advised that participants should have their own insurance coverage as the Chilton Athletic Club does not provide coverage in the event of an injury to your child.

All families participating in the Softball/Baseball program are automatically members of the Chilton Athletic Club. As a member of this organization each family will be assigned to assist with the concession stand for a home game at some time during the season. Schedules will be distributed with the game dates. All families are also encouraged to become a voting member of the club (optional) by paying the $10 per year club dues.
