OUR PRIVACY POLICY

The Gramm-Leach Bliley Act provides for the creation of new consumer privacy laws to be implemented by federal financial regulators, which included those of us who prepare federal tax returns. The effective date for the compliance is July 1, 2001.

There are many provisions in this law to protect consumers regarding the disclosure of their professional financial information to third parties, etc.

At Tice Associates, P.C., Public Accountants, it has ALWAYS been our policy over the 50 year history of our firm NOT to disclose any non-public personal information about our clients to anyone, except as instructed to do so by such clients. We restrict access to non-public personal information to those professionals necessary to prepare tax returns and financial statements and we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard your non-public personal information.

This notice is provided to you, our client, as required by law and with the advice of the National Society of Accountants.
