

WALTER A. WACHNER

Walter A. Wachner, age 53, of Roscommon, a former Pigeon resident, died Sunday, July 24 at Grayling Mercy Hospital.

Services were held Wednesday, July 27 at the Stevernal Funeral Home, Roscommon, with Rev. Robert Haskel officiating. Burial was in Pioneer Cemetery, South Branch Township.

Wachner was employed in the building industry as a dry waller. He had lived in Roscommon since moving from Utica 10 years ago. He was born April 11, 1930 in Pigeon, the son of the late Walter and Ethel Wachner.

Surviving with his wife, Joann, are four sons, Kevin at home, Dean of Roscommon, Jack of Mt. Clemens and David of Spring, Tex.; two daughters, Kelly at home and Marcy Mills, Conroe, Tex.; two stepsons, Michael and Charles, both of Utica; six grandchildren and three sisters, Onalee Roeber of Utica, Carol Wachner and Delores Eisinger, both of Ypsilanti.