

The God That Wanted a Kingdom

The First Story in Genesis

By Jim Myers

Vocabulary Words

ADAM (ah-dahm)

Primary Guideline

My belief system will be large enough to include all facts, open enough to be questioned and examined, flexible enough to change if errors or new facts are discovered.

Linguistic Model

A word consists of symbols or sounds with an attached bundle of associations that provides meanings. The associations were acquired through the source's life experiences, beginning with culture.

First Goal

Discover the Source's (writer or speaker) meanings of words first.

*Before time, a god hovered in total darkness above the surface of deep waters.
The god wants to create a Kingdom of ADAMs."*

*An ADAM is one male and one female human – a living human collective.
Two humans are equal to and adequate for each other in every way.*

ADAM will live on dry ground.
They will have soul given appetites, desires, and longings that are linked to the dry ground.
The presence of the god will always be with ADAM.*

ADAM must be taught, instructed, and assisted on exercising impulse control and self-discipline over their soul given appetites, desires, and longings.*

ADAM will create new ADAMs by sexual reproduction.
Male and female created with unique reproductive functions.*

ADAM will parent their children by providing for all of the basic life requirements, which include teaching, instructing, and mentoring them on how to become a mature ADAM.*

The lives of ADAMs will be protected, preserved, made more functional, and have the quality of life defined by the god.

All ADAMs will represent the god to all living creatures that the god creates or makes – by doing acts like the god that protect lives, preserve lives, make lives more functional, and increase the quality of life.

ADAMs will gather in the Temple of the god on the Seventh Day of the week and retell the story of "The God That Wanted a Kingdom" – and other stories related to it.*

Now it's time for the god to create a Kingdom & Temple!
