Blockers
Should stop a safe distance from the intersection so that, if a car decides to go around a blocker, riders will have time to react.
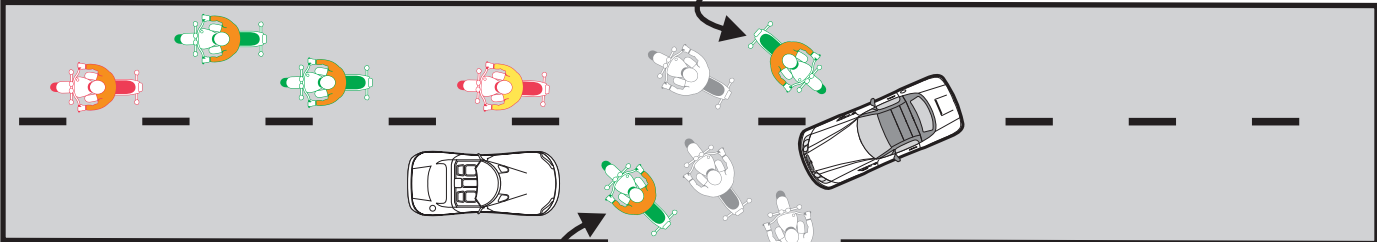

Blockers
Should stop a safe distance from the intersection so that, if a car decides to go around a blocker, riders will have time to react and are able to make a wide turn.

Blocker is too close to the intersection!

Blocker is too close to the intersection!