4th of July

Urbandale's centennial celebration could not have started any better with the family picnic, parade, carnival and fireworks display. And the weather was outstanding. Outstanding also were the 76 Urbandale Lions who teamed up to handle button sales, the bingo tent and the fish pond. Major kudos to Lion (and outgoing President) Jim Epstein for his leadership on button sales. We sold every button allocated to us.

Buttons: $9,736 dollars collected; we earned $1,577 for our club.

Bingo: $6,346 in revenue thanks to 58 Urbandale Lions and the very entertaining celebrity callers! Thank you Lion (and President) Pat Finnerty for organizing and overseeing this event.

Bike Collective

Pictured are some of the happy bike riders from the Urbandale English Language Learner summer program. Each year Urbandale Lions help Lion Larry Jablonski collect used bikes at the library.
