

John “JT” Toth is a Baldwin High School graduate that has lived in Brentwood for the last 13 years and is a proud member of his community. He has been active in Brentwood coaching baseball, performing with his band at local events. J.T. has also refereed the hockey games the past 3 years at Drop the Puck.

Last year J.T. was diagnosed with Follicular Lymphoma, which is causing him severe exhaustion. Unfortunately, Follicular Lymphoma is treatable but not curable. Because of this, J.T. will have to undergo continual treatment for the remainder of his life.
