

Kenmore Quilters Guild Newsletter

Late Summer 2018

<http://www.kenmorequiltersguild.net>

Welcome Hello, Everyone! It's time to start the quilt guild up again after a wonderful summer break. Are you ready for another fun filled year culminating in our triennial quilt show? Have you been sewing this summer? We have a challenge to make a sewing machine cover (unveiling at our October meeting) and hopefully the Mystery Quilt has been cut out. This year is going to be FUN!

Quilt Resources

Our wonderful Marti Kovach took the time to write up some information on club resources. Do you know anything about our guild library?

Who is Jennifer Chiaverini?

No, she is not a member. She is an author who is well represented in our Kenmore Quilt Guild Library. Her quilt themed novels are fully developed stories featuring a group of women known as the Elm Creek Quilters. Want to learn about Hawaiian quilting? Read The Aloha Quilt and see how one of the characters begins a new life and a new quilting adventure. Have a wedding coming up? Read The Wedding Quilt and see how they make the day even more special. There is an order to the series, but if you just want to try one, that is OK, you will not feel lost.

Take a look in our library to check out these novels as well as many books that introduce you to new techniques, polish you quilting skills, or answer your quilting questions. We have reference books, pattern books, and DVD's. You are sure to find something interesting.

Comfort Quilt Update

- We are in desperate need of bags to give away this winter for the CATS kids. More info at the meeting, but if you have some, please bring them in.
- Joyce and Cathy will cut batting for your comfort quilts if you let her know what you need.
- They have backing material too; let them know what you need.
- Excess fabric will be going to the fabric pool.

Steering Committee Report

We met at Jan's house on Wednesday, September 5. The meeting was attended by Pat McDonald, Marti Kovach, Reggie Daruszka, Sharon Goulet, Linda Swanekamp, Elizabeth Kerchner, Mary Lee Cooper, Carolyn Bongi, Mary Kedzierski, Cathy Chamberlin, Teresa Covert, and Jan Farrell.

- We have permission from the Town Recreation Department to have speakers hung from the rafters for our sound system. They will be purchased and installed in the month of September.
- We talked A LOT about the quilt show.
- Linda and Elizabeth went over next year's programs.
- Marti talked about the Consortium.
- Cathy Chamberlin talked about the need for tote bags.
- We talked about the boutique.

Sunshine and Shadows

We've got nothin'. Thank god.

No one expects the stamp collector to actually mail letters with his stamps.

No one expects the coin collector to use his coins in a vending machine for soda.

So why would anyone expect me to use my fabric collection to sew anything?

I am not a fabricaholic.
I am a fabric collector.
