Adoration at the Pierz Villa Chapel on Thursdays from 5 a.m. to 11 p.m.

From the Pastoral Associate: Humble goodness. There are many people in our area, and therefore I believe throughout the world, who are quietly, without boasting or fanfare, doing acts of great love and are being instruments of God. There are people who are praying for people in need. There are people who are helping others, sometimes at great sacrifice to themselves. There are people dealing with great losses and grief and yet find the time to help others, There are people who have been asked to do difficult things at a moments notice, and have done the best they can, but have done so it so well because they did the actions with love and prayer. There are people who everyday take care of family members with situations that require a lot of attention, prayer, time and loving attention to detail. None of these people that I am thinking about (and I realize that there is a lot more good that is going on that I am not aware of) would consider themselves great, or holy. If they were to be asked, "Why are you doing what you are doing" most of them would simply say something like, "well this is what needs to be done." If you ever get down on the world, remember that God is working through His many humble, imperfect servants who are here and all throughout the rest of the world.

WELCOME: Fr. David Maciej who is here to say Mass at St. Joseph's on Saturday and Fr. Robert Harren who will be here for masses on Sunday at St. Michael's and St. Joseph's.
