

IN THE BOX SOCCER

Waiver & Release

Participation in all sports can be inherently dangerous and it is impossible to ensure the safety of all participating individuals. Soccer demands cardiovascular fitness, coordination, and agility. Although many risks can be avoided, I understand that not all risks can be avoided and release In The Box Soccer from responsibility for any injury that my child might incur during the course of normal play. I further understand that in the event of a medical emergency, In The Box Soccer will call EMS to render assistance and that I will be financially responsible for any expenses involved.

While playing soccer, accidents do happen. Some of these accidents may be minor, like collisions with other players, collisions with the ground, and being struck by the ball. Other accidents may be more significant like collisions with the goalposts. Other injuries may also include:

- minor injuries like scrapes, bruises, strains, blisters, and sprains;
- more serious injuries like broken bones, concussions, muscle tears, and ligament tears;
- catastrophic injuries like heat stroke, cardiac arrest, and death

To reduce the risk of injury, participants are expected to abide by the following rules:

- participant is expected to be physically fit before In The Box Soccer camp begins
- participant must adhere to the rules of soccer, thus creating a safe playing environment

The participant agrees to follow the preceding safety rules, and all rules common to the sport of soccer. Further, the participant agrees to report any unsafe practices, conditions, or equipment to the In The Box Soccer instructor.

I certify that the participant 1) possesses a sufficient degree of physical fitness to safely participate in soccer, 2) understands that he/she is to discontinue activity at any time he/she feels undue discomfort or stress, and 3) has indicated any health-related conditions that might affect his/her ability to play soccer and he/she will verbally inform the In The Box Soccer instructor immediately.

I have read the preceding information and understand the risks associated with participation in soccer. I have voluntarily registered the participant in the activity, and in doing so, the participant assumes all the inherent risks of the sport.

I do hereby consent that In The Box Soccer has the right to take photographs and video of my child while participating in camp sessions. These photos and video may be used on the company website, and in promotional materials without compensation. I understand that my child's name and identity will not be revealed.

Waiver of Liability: In consideration of playing soccer, on behalf of myself, my family, or my heirs, I hereby release In The Box Soccer and its staff from liability for injury, loss, or death to the participant while using any facility or equipment, or in any way associated with participating in the activity of soccer during In The Box Soccer camp.
