PONDERINGS FROM PASTOR CATHIE

"To God's church in West Fargo, North Dakota. To those who have been made holy to God in Christ Jesus, who are called to be God's people. Together with all those who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place—he's their Lord and ours! Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

—from the Common English Bible translation of 1 Corinthians 1:2-3; adapted for Community Presbyterian Church of West Fargo, ND.

We start out the month of April on a high note as we celebrate Easter, the Resurrection of the Lord! After walking through the increasing darkness of Lent and Holy Week, it is a relief to be in the light and feel joyful. Our Lord and Savior Lives! Imagine you were with the disciples and Jesus' family.

They have been through a very rough time. They thought Jesus was dead and rejoice because he was alive. We probably do not feel the full intensity of feelings that they did, but we can feel the immensity of what it meant to them, and what it means to us that Jesus rose from the dead.

We would not be Christians, if Jesus had not been crucified and risen from the dead. Read that sentence again. We would not be Christians, had Jesus not died, and risen from the dead. Sit with that thought. Ponder what it would be like, had that not happened.

Our whole spiritual belief would be different. Not only would we not be Christians, we wouldn't be together at Community Presbyterian Church, as we know it.

I have begun my studies for a Doctor of Ministry through the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary. The first assignment was to read the book, The Crucifixion of Ministry by Andrew Purves; and write a book review. The timing of Easter and the resurrection of Jesus Christ have been a good match for Purves' book.

Purves asks us to think about our ministry, your ministry and mine. We are all Christians, because Jesus died and was resurrected. We believe, and we are intentional about sharing the Good News with others.

As humans, we tend to think of the church we are associated with as "ours." Have you ever said, CPC is "my" church? I admit that I have thought about being "your" pastor, and considering you "my" people, and all of you as part of "my" ministry. Purves says to think again. This isn't "my" ministry and it isn't "your" church. Community Presbyterian Church is Jesus' ministry. If it wasn't for Jesus, we would not have a ministry at all. Christian ministry belongs to Jesus, not us.

Karl Barth, a 20th century theologian, wrote that "It is not Jesus Christ who needs our ministries, it is our ministries that need Jesus Christ." In the Gospel of John 15:5 Jesus says, "Apart from me you can do nothing."

How might we think differently and do things differently if we consciously remember that CPC is Jesus' ministry, not ours? Certainly, our role is to be involved with Jesus' ministry, but the ministry does not belong to us. We have been called to be children of God. We have been called to be disciples of Jesus, here at Community Presbyterian Church.

We'll talk more about what it means to be part of Jesus' ministry. For now, take some time to ponder what that means for us that "our ministry needs Jesus Christ," and what it would be like to be involved with Jesus' ministry, not ours.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you.

Pastor Cathie

Elders to serve communion on March 4, 2018 will be Lise Alves, Cathy Birrenkott, Sue Hanna, and Mary Jo Moorhead.

The financial report was discussed. Mary Jo Moorhead made a motion to approve the financial report. Motion was seconded and carried.

Discussion was held regarding the City of West Fargo's plan for the intersection of Sheyenne and 7th Ave. CPC is not in favor of a round-about due to the lack of space, the safety of pedestrian crossing, and the desire to slow down traffic rather than speed up the flow of traffic.

Discussion was held regarding CPC being a location for the Great Plains Foodbank summer food program. More information and discussion will follow.

Courtney Anderson runs an in-home daycare with no more than 10 children. She would like to use CPC as one of three back-places to bring her daycare children to in the case of an emergency. This would be a safe place for the children to shelter until their parents can pick them up.

Christian Education Committee: A multi-age Sunday School curriculum has been purchased. Dawn Larson is helping with the music for Palm Sunday. Graduation recognition, delivering 3rd grade Bibles, and VBS are being planned.

Mission Committee: The Food Pantry drive brought in over 600 pounds of food. The "North" won the "Soup"er Bowl challenge. Help is being organized to assist the Emergency Food Pantry in assembling thank you baskets for volunteers. The focus for March and April will be One Great Hour of Sharing. Fish banks will be distributed in early March and returned at the end of April.

Personnel Committee: The search for a new Office Assistant continues.

Stewardship Committee: A brokerage account with Dougherty and Company

LLC will be established in the church's name. Carolyn Meester, Treasurer, and Andrew Thostenson, Stewardship Chair, will be responsible for accepting gifts of negotiable securities and, upon Session approval, liquidating those securities at the market. Proceeds of sales will be deposited into the general fund or into dedicated accounts as requested by the donor.

Worship Committee: A fourth pianist, Lissa Meyer, has been added to the music rotation. Welcome Lissa!

No meetings: Deacons, Nominating Committee, Service and Fellowship Committee, Trustees.

Meeting closed with prayer by Pastor Cathie at 8:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Becky DeJong

The financial report was discussed. An audit of the books was performed by Yvonne Hummel on January 20, 2018. The books were found to be in good order and did not have any significant exceptions. Thank you to Carolyn Meester, Treasurer, for doing a thorough job and for having great processes and procedures in place.

New Session members were assigned to their committees: Laurie Elhard – Worship Committee, Melanie Hansen – Christian Education Committee, and Mike Misheski – Nominating Committee

The summer food program, in coordination with the Great Plains Food Bank, is still being discussed and considered.

PLEASE CONSIDER...

...having your general giving pledge automatically debited from your checking or savings account by signing up for our pre-authorized debit program. Several members and friends have already done so.

It may seem cold, and it may seem too computerized and impersonal, but God has made it quite clear that we are to use his resources efficiently. This program really does help us to use His talents wisely. The parable of the talents told in Matthew 25 underscores this:

Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, "Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents." His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master."

When you bring your gifts to God in this way, we can save interest expense and we can more effectively match our monthly expenses with more predictable tithing.

Many have already taken advantage of this program and it is working very well. Please use the form in this newsletter, and let us manage our talents more wisely.
