

Falmouth Newcomers Newsletter

President's Message

Greetings,

As I was driving to the first general meeting it was pouring and I wondered if the meeting would be well attended. Never doubt the tenacity of folks from Falmouth. The attendance was amazing with many new members and, of course, so many regulars. It was great to see so many of you. Fortunately, the rain ended before the fire alarm caused us all to vacate the meeting. That did, however, provide us with an opportunity to spend more time renewing old relationships and making new acquaintances. I am delighted with the welcoming spirit of our members.

Christina Hepner Brodie, our Vice President of Activities, has done an outstanding job of organizing the activities and adding new ones. We owe her a thank you for all the work she has done. It was especially nice to note that new members have already taken on the responsibility to chair activities as well as suggesting new ones. I also want to thank all the chairpersons for the work they do. The activities are central to this club; they continue to vitalize it. It is through the activities that we meet other members and form friendships as many of us embark on a fresh phase in our life. They provide a positive environment to those of us who have recently retired or newly moved to the town.

It was also nice to hear of all the social activities that Jeanne and Joyce have planned for this season. Hopefully, by the time you read this newsletter you will have attended some activities and participated in some of the social events. Having a representative from our cruise line partner available to provide information on our European trip and respond to our questions was a valuable addition to the meeting. This trip will provide many members with an opportunity to travel. One member told me she had wanted to go on a cruise, but not a big ocean liner. This trip will be ideal for her and for many who also may not want to travel alone. A couple who have not yet moved to Falmouth, but are in the process of doing so, joined Newcomers so they could participate in the cruise with their friends. Thanks to Jeanne and Joyce for all their work.

Thank you to all the Board Members for the refreshments they brought. It is wonderful to work with a dedicated and committed Board. I am so grateful to each of them. Our newsletter and web site also have taken on a new look. We are indebted to Roanne Angiello and Simon Sherrington for their hard work.

In October the activity signup bags will again be available in case you missed some activities at the September meeting or were unable to attend. I look forward to seeing you at our October general meeting and also at many of the activities and socials for the upcoming fall.

Margaret Souza
President

BLACK COUPON

Deadline for receipt of BLACK COUPONS and checks: October 6, 2018

You are invited to a party at the Deadwood Saloon

Come help solve a murder. The Deadwood Saloon in 1874 is the scene of the crime. You will receive a set of clues and spend the evening trying to collect more information. You will also be given objectives, such as spreading information or asking questions. You can join in the game, or sit back and watch the action.

You can spend the evening playing poker, betting on the outcome of the poker game, robbing others of their money at gunpoint, or any other means to get the most cash at the end of the evening. Everyone who attends will receive '$500' with which to gamble, bribe, buy information, etc. There will be a prize for the richest patron at the end of the game.

Come in a simple costume of jeans and shirt -- we will supply the bandana. Feel free to add hat and boots, or wear a skirt and boa. We will all cast a vote for best dressed male and female and prizes will be awarded.

When you arrive you will be given two envelopes—one you will open immediately. In the envelope are $500, a list of clues and objectives, your character sheet, and name badge. The second envelope you will open after the murder. In it are more clues and objectives.

Poker tables will be set up for anyone who would like to play. There will be lots of food and you can belly up to the bar for a drink. After the murderer is accused and brought to justice, we will award prizes and get in some barn dancing.

The Outermost House

By Harry Beston Recommended by George Ghiorse

When it was first published in 1928, THE OUTERMOST HOUSE received only modest recognition, but it has since become one of America's most beloved books about the natural world of the outer Cape. Not a trained environmentalist like Rachel Carson or a Thoreau activist, Henry Beston is a witness, presenting the natural world from a richly poetic and deeply personal viewpoint. He pristinely narrates the events of a full year of semi-solitude, starting in September of 1926, while living in a remote cottage on the dunes in Orleans near today's Coast Guard Beach.

The book, only about 200 pages long, traces his experiences, for example, of observations of autumnal bird migrations, the sounds of November's winds and surf, the exhilaration of a late winter gale, occasional interactions with locals and nearby Coast Guardsmen, the welcome return of migrating shore birds during an April excursion, and detailed descriptions of the free play of wind, sun, and surf as summer returns to the dunes and beaches.

The book concludes with a magnificent tiny chapter on the final night of August, 1927, Orion prevailing in the night-to-dawn sky: "Autumn had come, and the Giant stood again at the horizon of day and ebbing year, his belt still hidden in the band of a cloud, his feet in the deeps of space and the far surges of the sea." This is a little gem of a book, now an American classic.

Have you read a book that you love? Would you or your book club like to recommend a book you have read?

Sunset Cruise a Success!

This year's cruise had to be postponed from the original date due to inclement weather, but on September 17 over 100 members of Newcomers, Encore and guests enjoyed themselves onboard the Island Queen as we cruised Vineyard Sound passing by Vineyard Haven and Oak Bluffs.

While the sunset itself wasn't spectacular, the weather was warm, the seas calm, the delicious food plentiful and the comradery excellent! Many thanks to Jeanne Glennon, Phyllis Huse and Judy Pooley for their hard work to make this event so enjoyable!

Newcomers Book Group in Action

Members of one of our Newcomers book groups traveled to Cuttyhunk and Penikese islands on September 3, 2018. The book group members on the trip were reading a book about the islands, Beyond the Bright Sea, by Lauren Wolk.

There are several active book groups. Sign up at the October meeting or email or call one of the book group chairpersons listed in the activity table on p.13.

Group Activity Updates

You may join an activity at any point in the year. Some are easier to join in the September-October timeframe as groups get established for the year—even so, you may join late. Others are completely flexible and easily add participants at any time. For more information about activities or to contact an activity chair email: falmouthnewcomersactivities@gmail.com

MORE New Activities for 2018-2019: Sign up for them by calling the leader or come to the October meeting when you can formally sign up for ANY of our Newcomer Activities.

GAME: Bunco - Join this group for a fun evening of playing a dice game—no skills needed, just an openness to fun!

SOCIAL: Wine Exploration – If you enjoy wine—or want to try new ones, join this group. You'll be assigned to a group of 8 to 11 and your group will decide on when to meet. You'll rotate through member homes where the host picks a country and everyone in your group contributes a wine and an hors d'oeuvre from the country.

THESE New Activities were introduced at the September meeting and are purposefully adding more people:

CARDS: Men's – This is a new opportunity for those men want to play card games other than Bridge or Poker—Rummy, Euchre or whatever you want to play.

INVESTMENT GROUP – Phil Nehro, a retired professional from the investment world, offered to lead this group. It could be educational or an investment club—the participants can shape what it is!

VOLUNTEER EXCHANGE – This is an opportunity for you to sign up to exchange your skills with other members who could use your help. We will keep track of hours worked and you can use your hours on services you may like or need. Examples are: rides, babysitting, cooking, handyman help. All skills accepted!

TRADITIONAL ACTIVITIES:

BRIDGE!

Want to play bridge? We are looking for experienced players (singles or couples) to join groups that meet twice a month to play in members' homes.

Mix and Mingle

Date and Time: Friday, October 19 6:30 - 9 p.m.

Mix and Mingles are held in Newcomers' homes throughout the year. It is a wonderful opportunity for both couples and singles to get to know one another.

Deadline for sign-ups is October 14 or when the host homes' capacity has been reached. Once you have signed up, you will receive an email 5 days before the event with the name and address of your host. You will also receive instructions to bring either a hearty hors d'oeuvre or dessert to share with the group and your own beverage. The host will provide coffee.

Since Mix and Mingles are popular events, it is best to email your response as soon as you receive your newsletter.

Hosting an event is easy. All you have to do is provide a welcoming home, paper products, water and coffee.

The next Mix and Mingle is planned for Friday, November 30th.

Minutes of General Meeting September 13, 2018

Margaret Souza, President of Newcomers, called the meeting to order at 10 AM. She introduced herself and welcomed the group as a whole, thanking everyone for coming. She then introduced Rev. Jonathan Drury, Pastor of the First Congregational Church, who welcomed the club members to Falmouth. Margaret encouraged members to sign up for the small group activities, as they are key to forming friendships within Newcomers. She also encouraged members to read the monthly newsletter which provides information about our programs, socials, and other activities.

Margaret requested that new members stand and introduce themselves, asking that they include where they were from and what brought them to Newcomers. After a brief interruption from a fire drill, 37 new members introduced themselves.

Margaret introduced the Board of Directors and asked them to stand when their name was called. She thanked the board for working through the summer to plan the socials, programs and other activities for the upcoming year.

Jeanne Fortier, a VP of Socials, reviewed the upcoming events. She mentioned that Saturday is the last day to sign up for the Sunset Cruise scheduled for September 17th. Tapas, Trivia & Treats will be held at the Navigator on November 10th and is free for members. Crazy Cards will be on April 7th. A Spring Dance will be held at Pocasset Country Club on May 3rd. There will be a Wine Tasting at Cape Cod Winery on June 1st. Jeanne circulated a sign-up sheet for individuals interested in helping out with the social events. Next, Doris Lachapelle, Past President, spoke about the Murder Mystery event to be held on November 13th at the Navigator.

Jane Murphy and Karen Baranowski, VPs of Programs, shared that the Holiday Luncheon will be held on December 14th, with a snow date of December 17th.

Roanne Angiello, Newsletter Editor, reminded members that the newsletter is accessed via a link in an email from the Falmouth Newcomers. It is usually sent out a few days prior to the start of a new month.

Next, Christina Brodie, Activities VP, gave a slide presentation of all the activities available, including 8 that are new this year.

Margaret reminded everyone that they can still go around the room and sign up for activities. She again thanked everyone for coming and adjourned the meeting at 11:15 AM.

Respectfully submitted,
Ginny Palmieri, Recording Secretary
