

Madison, William H.

William H. Madison, 80, of Caseville, died Monday afternoon, May 10, 2004, at his home while under hospice care. He was born December 5, 1923 in South Fork, Pennsylvania to the late Raymond and Elizabeth (Childers) Madison. William moved to Detroit after high school, and then joined the army during World War II. Upon his return to Detroit, he became an auto mechanic working for Evans Manufacturing. He was forced to retire in his late 20s after suffering a crippling cerebral hemorrhage. In 1971, he moved to Florida where he remained until the fall of 1993, when he came to Caseville to live with his son for health reasons. Surviving are two sons, Thomas Madison and his wife, Donna, and Robert Madison, both of Caseville; two grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. Private services will be conducted at Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. Arrangements by the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville.
