

Mechell Smith, DNP, RN, NP-C

Mechell graduated with a Doctor of Nursing from Gardner-Webb University in 2018, after receiving a Master of Nursing with a concentration in Family Nurse Practitioner from East Carolina University in 1998. She is board certified by the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners.

Mechell has experience in neurosurgery, urology, vascular surgery and physical medicine and rehabilitation. Mechell is highly trained to conduct physical exams, order and interpret diagnostic tests, diagnose and treat a wide range of medical conditions.

Mechell is married and has two children. She enjoys volunteer work with her church, the Civil Air Patrol and Scouting USA. Mechell's hobbies include working with stained glass, traveling, reading and spending time with her family.