Pledge of Allegiance

Inspirational thought given by Sara Zorich: "One of the things, I learned the hard way was that is doesn't pay to get discouraged."-Lucille Ball

Treasurer Report: Christy Burton

- Checking Acct. $96,886.64 and Restricted Funds: $88,629.11
- Clubs can get their balances and the budget is a work in process.
- The office has yellow deposit slips and envelopes. Give the deposit to Marilyn or one of the secretaries to put in the vault then e-mail Christy, so she knows that there is a deposit.

Report of Principal: No Report.

Report of Activities Director: Eric Holm (Given by Lisa Francis)

- Eric will pay half of the price for buses for away football games that are over two hours away. Then students can pay the other half of the buses.
- They are ordering rally towels for the kids.

REPORTS OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

President: Lisa Francis

- We don't give checks to anyone, just to the designated person for each club or sport.
- Big Parade/District Parade and the Truman Homecoming Parade on September 17th at 9:00 a.m. Student council having a carnival for kids and Homecoming dance Saturday night.
- There are five more water fountains being installed in school.
- Sarah has the program booklet ready with businesses and teams.
- There will be pre-recorded program announcements at each football game. If you have an announcement you want to do at the football game you need to e-mail Eric Holms. They will be picking songs out before hand, so that they can monitor the type of song.
- The football scoreboard for Truman we will need to find someone to pay for it.
- Thinking about opening concession stand during baseball games this spring.
- She will send a reminder e-mail about the Patriot Club Meeting a week before meeting.

Fundraising: Tammy Wheeler

- They are going to sell a physical ticket and going to have Salvador's do the dinner. If we get the same price from them as last year, then we should make $5 or $6 per ticket sold. Then a percent of what each club/sport sell they will get this portion in there account.
- There will be hundred baskets for the silent auction.
- There are no games on this day, so there should be a lot of people.

Programs: Tamera McGrew

- Discussed Art Night doing a program that impacts students.

Membership: Rebecca Painter

- They don't have membership numbers. The membership forms are available tonight or you can sign-up on line.

Concessions: Traci Titus

- They are organizing the inventory and they found a lot of gloves and paper products.
- They are having picnic tables' set-up.

Apparel: Mikealene Evans

- The apparel will be for sale on Back to School night and Open House Night (8/29).
- There are a lot of new merchandise and the baseball hats are really popular.

Project Grad: Carrie Wilson

- They met over the summer and the second meeting is next Monday.
- They are confirming a venue, so they can put a deposit down. They are looking at Blue Springs Field House, William Jewel College and Raytown old YMCA. They called Sky Zone but they won't do over nights.
- Need Parents to volunteer Sophomore, Junior or Senior parents.
