

Every seed bears its own nature. If it's natural and corruptible, the life it produces is also natural and corruptible. If that seed is God's divine Word, its life also is divine. "Since you have purified *your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart, <sup>23</sup> having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever" (I Pet. 1:22-23). Since we now have God's own life, we'll be like Him. We'll love like Him. In fact, if we don't love our brothers, we don't really know God. "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup> He who does not love does not know God, for God is love" (I John 4:7-8). All for Jesus, Richard*
