"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32.

January - February, 1992

A World Overview

This is February, 1992. There are so many immense things happening all over the world that it would be meaningless to restrict our thinking to just one area or nation. Foremost in our minds should be the survival of our people, our culture, our nation, and Christianity itself. All of these are under a diabolical attack. This presentation will discuss some of the current affairs of selected countries in the world as they will directly relate to the survival and redemption of our people.

There are currently many articles published in magazines and newspapers, as well as presentations on television and radio, that are direct confrontations to the white man. These articles have become so bold that they can be considered blatant racism directed against the white, Celto-Saxon.

The February, 1992 issue of the Esquire magazine is an excellent example. The cover, all in white, has in large print (3.75 inch) the words WHITE PEOPLE. Then, in small (10 point) print at the bottom of the page the words "The Trouble With America". The articles discussing the point made on the cover are designed to degrade and destroy the morale and self esteem of the very people who founded this nation, the hard working, God-fearing white man. The photographs are revealing. There is a picture of a man, in sloppy physical condition with a pot belly, standing under the flag. There is a picture of three young, obviously poor children, one naked, and a little boy, again with a pot belly, shooting a BB gun at a paper plate. There is a picture of an obvious cult type man, again in poor physical shape, sitting cross legged without a stitch of clothing on.

Larry Bird is quoted as saying, "Basketball is a black man's game. I just try to fit in." There is an article on Charlie Manson as being typical of white man thinking. There is an article on the white man being obsessed with hard rock and heavy metal music. There is an article on the number of white children who are experiencing violent death and suicides. There is an article written by a black man telling the white man what is wrong with him and the country.

Then there is an article which shows the team surrounding George Bush in his election campaigns. The Anglophile, Eastern establishment and the international banker somehow represents the white man in this story. The Anglophile "Boston Brahmin" class, combining forces with the international Khazar bankers have reduced our once proud people to the status of the whipping boy of the other peoples of the world.

It has been pointed out, and probably correctly, that this current adventurous and precipitate outburst against the white man is actually a dialectics. They want reaction and they want it to be physical. The end result, of course, is their desire for martial law and the filling of their newly constructed concentration camps.

There are two choices. We either rise to the bait or we ignore it. If we knew what goes through the mind of those who have conquered us we would undoubtedly see that they are totally amazed at how mesmerized and tranquil we are. Why are we mesmerized? It is because we have been removed from our God. Once we no longer have God going with us into battle, we become afraid of the dark and of our own shadow. When we no longer truly believe in everlasting life, we become petrified of death.

Jesus said in Luke 12:4, "And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do."

We have all heard of the old saying, "He sure is a salty guy." We even look at the saying in a negative sense. But what does it mean? Jesus said in Matthew 5:13, "Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men."

In the Greek, the lack of salt in men means to be insipid. It means the lack of vigor, spirit, animation, lacking in the power of exciting emotion.

Do we, as a people, fit the description of what Jesus was saying? We must because we certainly have been trodden under the foot of the enemies of Christ.

According to all of the other races of the world, the white man is considered to be all that embodies evil. Their argument is that the white man has destroyed the environment, depleted the natural resources, exploited all other peoples as slave labor, created the mass destruction of war and, in the process, lowered ourselves to fat, lazy, immoral, selfish slobs. All of those who hate Christ (the antichrists) direct their hatred and their efforts against the white Christian. This is blatant racism and it is being done for a political purpose. We need to understand this because our very survival depends on it.

Our culture is rapidly declining. The "melting pot" is boiling over and as it hits the fire, it smells. Perhaps this is not quite so obvious in the great breadbasket of the nation but in the big cities, on the West coast and the East coast, along the Mexican border and in the South, it is all too apparent. This, too, will be discussed in greater detail.

Our nation is in shambles. The seats for Senators and for Congressmen are bought and sold just like in the last days of Rome. There is not a statesman or a natural leader among them. A good man doesn't dare to run because he would be dead (either figuratively or literally) before he reached office. Our national debt is beyond the ability ever to be repaid and it was intended to be that way.

The entire world is looking at the United States in utter amazement that we would be so willing to destroy ourselves. They consider us like the proverbial lemmings marching off into the sea to drown.

This newsletter has reported in several issues some of the examples of how the antichrists have nearly destroyed the Christian faith within the country. We have allowed, with no resistance, as a people, an antichrist government to re-evaluate the first amendment separation of church and state. If we won't stand up and fight for our God, then just what will we fight for?

But all of this is going to change. From the mountains of information coming in from all over the world, the decade of the 1990's is going to be the most exciting, the most violent, the most rewarding ten years in the history of our people. We had better fasten our seat belts because it is going to be a bumpy ride!

Although it is difficult to see it right now in our current state of affairs, the European culture of American people, down real deep, have the qualities that make for an epic. We are discussing the white, Celto-Saxon European Christians who founded this nation. We are fat, lazy and selfish but down there, somewhere, we are the same people that we once were and we will do it again. But this will only happen with God's help. That will happen only when we get right with Him and obey His Laws. We earnestly and sincerely believe that this is happening on a broad scale right now.

Isaiah said in chapter 52, "Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean."

"Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. For thus saith the Lord, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money."

"Now therefore, what have I here, saith the Lord, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the Lord; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I." (Isaiah 52:1-6)

We are astounded by the number of telephone calls that we receive from people we have never heard from before. They have heard about our movement and they have been given copies of our newsletters. They are giving testimonies of things that are happening in their lives and in their areas that prove we are becoming more self-reliant instead of being dependent on the government for our security. Home schooling is becoming more the normal way of educating our children. The understanding of the antichrist is now of utmost importance. The willingness to be in open defiance of court orders to suppress Christianity is becoming unrestrained. The resolve to defend the right to own firearms is becoming legend. The backbone of America is stiffening and God will bless it.

Many geo-political predictions are now being offered by qualified men of stature. Admittedly, not all of the predictions will be accurate but enough will be for us to start preparing, not only for our survival but for victory and redemption.

In this issue we will give a review of the major so-called trouble spots all over the world and we will put it together in the form of several predictions. These predictions are not necessarily ours here at the Christian Crusade for Truth. They will be a compilation of predictions that are gleaned from international publications.

Russia. Most of us would accurately state that our major concern currently is the internal affairs of our own country. If we will think about it for a moment, we will realize that the current economic recession is the direct result of the collapse of the Soviet Union. True, our entire economic and political structure was destined to fall sooner or later anyway but the actions in Russia are speeding along the process.

Some are saying that we won the cold war. No, how can you win anything when the entire scenario was arranged from the beginning? The so-called end of the cold war is to be just the beginning of world-wide unrest and conflict.

Soviet Russia, as much as we dislike the thought, was a stabilizing influence on all of Eastern Europe. It kept the peace, even though it was through brute force. There are over a hundred nationalities and languages in the old Soviet Union. Nearly all of the major religions of the world were represented in the Soviet Union.

With the breakup of the U.S.S.R., the resentments and hatred because of the maltreatment of one group over another is already beginning to surface. In this modern age nearly all of the governments of the world have tried to teach that religion is a relic of the past and does not have an influence in our lives. This idea is totally wrong. Religion is still the major driving force of all of the countries, regions, races and tribes of the world. "You can take the boy out of the country but you can't take the country out of the boy."

The United States has had a great fringe benefit from the cold war that was intentionally created. There have been jobs in great quantities and the resultant high standard of living by maintaining the military in ready alert all of these years. Both the U.S.S.R. and the U.S. have totally expended themselves as the result of the nuclear arms race. Again, this was intentional. Neither the United States nor Russia are prepared for the type of conflict that will be rampant in both countries in the near future.

The current situation in Russia indicates that it will be the military personnel who could precipitate the internal conflict. They are being ignored in the current reorganization of the countries. They are losing their incomes, their housing and their feeling of worth. Already, many conferences are being held among the military officer corps in an attempt to resolve these issues. The military of any country always changes its allegiance to the new power structure because the new leaders realize the need and arrange for it. But this doesn't seem to be happening. This would indicate that it is intentional in order to help precipitate unrest.

Islam. It will be with the Moslem people of Russia that we will see the greatest unrest in the years to come. These Moslem people will join with the other Islamic nations to create the major unrest in the world over the next few years. These people are the one group which can be described as being led totally by their religion.

The emphasis of "self" in their life is the least of importance to them. The best example to show this are the Afghanistan Moslem people. Professor M.M. Ali of the University of District of Columbia teaches that "The lives of the Afghan people are governed by plain truths. Loyalties, in line with their unpretentious and straightforward philosophy of life, run in a linear, hierarchical form: the Faith (an unquestioning and unrelenting belief in Islam); the Jirga or the tribe (a fulcrum of the sociopolitical structure); the nuclear family; and the Ilaqa (the ancestral piece of land)."

"Any disturbance or imbalance in these prioritized rungs of loyalties can bring out the worst in an Afghan. A very significant omission from this descending order of loyalties is the individual self. Its absence explains the willingness of an Afghan to kill or die for the protection of his religion, the Jirga, the family and the Ilaqa." In other words, they have not lost their saltiness.

But, they have a weakness. They have trouble getting along with each other among the Jirgas or the tribes. Dr. Ali shows that this is the reason why the Mujahedeen (Afghan freedom fighters) have not been able to wrestle the country back from the Communist leaders in Kabul, even after the Soviets left the country.

It appears that most, if not all, of the Moslem countries have this same malady. But that is going to change, at least when they band together to fight the great Satan, the white Celto-Saxon and, in particular, the United States.

The greatest peril to this entire scenario is that they undoubtedly have nuclear warheads because of the breakup of the Soviet Union. Boris Yeltsin says that he has been able to keep control over them all but nobody believes that. Further, the Russian nuclear experts are now being wooed by the Islamic nations to further improve their nuclear capability. Just like we hired the German missile experts after W.W.II, they are hiring the Russian nuclear experts.

The Moslem people of Russia and the near East are generally poor and uneducated. The wealth from oil hasn't trickled down to the lower levels of society. These people are flocking into Europe to take jobs that the better-off white European doesn't want to do any longer. This is just like it is here in the United States with the Latinos coming across the border.

The conflict among the races will start in earnest in the near future in Europe, just like it has in England, South Africa and the United States.

The recent genocide in Kuwait and Iraq is but one of many such incidents in history that has left the Islamic people humiliated. As far back as modern history can record, the Islamic people have been used for geo-political purposes to further the interests of certain people in the West. The Islamic people don't always realize that only a certain element in the West has created this situation. They hold us all responsible for allowing it to happen. As Col. Quadafi stated several years ago, "The West is still fighting the Crusades." We sheep-like Christians of the West have likewise been manipulated in the same manner (and continue to be).

All of this has left the one billion Moslems with a hatred that is beyond comprehension. When the catalytic incident occurs, the entire world will be embroiled in conflicts that the hi-tech warfare capabilities of the has-been superpowers will not be able to handle. That catalytic incident will be revealed in this issue.

Yugoslavia. Even though Yugoslavia has officially been separate from the Soviet Union ever since Tito, the country has been closely associated with the now defunct U.S.S.R. Here is a good example of the ethnic unrest that will continue to increase in the next several years.

The history of Yugoslavia shows that the people of the entire country originally migrated to the area from the Slavic portions of Russia. Louis Adamic, the author of the book My People, quotes King Peter I of Serbia on the history of the people of Yugoslavia. "If anyone is to blame for our calamities, it is the first of our ancestors who came here hundreds of years ago...Why did they pick the Balkans? The whole world wants this region or wants to go through here on the way to some other place. That was the great mistake. Our ancestors should never have left Russia."

Through the years these Slavic people separated themselves into two major groups, the Croatians and the Serbians. New countries of Serbia, Croatia, and Bosnia evolved.

The basic difference is, once again, that of religion. The Croatians became aligned with the Roman Church and the Serbians aligned with the Orthodox.

The Turkish Ottoman Empire occupied over 50% of Croatia in the 15th Century. The remaining portion of Croatia became the front-lines of the Christian West. They fought honorably to keep the Moslem Turks out of Europe. They joined the Austro-Hungarian Empire and continued as a state in that empire until 1918, the end of World War I. For nearly 500 years the Serbians were a part of the Turkish Ottoman Empire. Of course, that made Croatia a part of the Central Powers during World War I. They are still paying the price for that fate of history over which they had no control.

During World War II Serbia became a puppet state of Nazi Germany with Croatia declaring itself an independent state but still occupied by Germany. Following World War II the dictator Tito took over, with the aid of Serbian Generals and created Yugoslavia and aligned with the Soviet Union.

Because Yugoslavia was aligned with Communism, the British sector of the Allied German Occupation Forces, under the command of Eisenhower, turned over to Tito 150,000 Croatian soldiers and 200,000 civilians to certain death.

Again, the manipulated Christian people of the West were involved in incidents that reflect badly on our people. But most Christians of the West haven't the slightest idea of the skullduggery that took place after World War II.

Cuba, Nicaragua, Ethiopia and the other Communist surrogate countries. With the fall of the U.S.S.R., all of the small Communist countries will of necessity fall apart. Without the subsidies coming from the Soviet Union, including the military hardware, they will disintegrate. But this will leave a power vacuum and that means civil wars and revolutions. Fidel Castro of Cuba is hinting at retirement. This means the end of that dictatorship. It is suspect that Castro was approached and told that he would be rewarded handsomely if he retired. Think of the power vacuum and the unrest that will occur. Is that intentional?

The Communist rebels in El Salvador are capitulating. Again, we can expect civil unrest. Since Communism itself will not really be dead in any of these countries, the style of fighting is what will change. It will be classical terrorism.

Japan. We are getting a lot of news from Japan these days. Maybe we are being fed more about Japan than we should be to hide the identity of the next superpower.

Japan became extraordinarily successful after World War II with the help of certain moneyed interests in the United States and Britain. It was thought that Japan would be the next country and ethnic people to be used by the world's bankers in the great milking barn concept.

The Japanese people have probably the best work ethic in the entire world. They work at almost a dead run constantly and with smiles on their faces. They are intelligent with a flair for mathematics. They can copy anything and make the finished product as good, and often times better, than the original from which it was copied. But they are not genuinely creative. This is one reason they were not chosen to be the world's next superpower.

The cost of living in Japan is staggering. Shortly following World War II, the investments went to Japan because of cheap labor. The labor is still cheaper than in the West and workers there are still required to submit to extra demands of the companies.

The Japanese people also recognize that they are being used in the same way that the labor of the United States and Britain is being used, all through the control of the international bankers. In this regard, the people of Japan were more astute than we were. Thus, Japan cannot be considered the next haven for the international bankers and the utopia.

Japan will survive as a powerful nation. But they will of necessity submit to the influence of the next superpower and those who have returned to that superpower to attempt to once again bleed it dry.

Africa. Here is a calamity in the making. The intentional and orchestrated removal of the European protectorates is now resulting in these people returning to the lifestyle of their forefathers. All semblance of modern civilization is rapidly disappearing. The educated Black man in Africa will be destroyed, one by one, because he will be considered an "Uncle Tom." Because of customs, mores and morals, a large share of the people will be devastated through starvation and disease. The strongest will survive and they will be tough. The legends of the past of the prowess of the African native will again be realized.

South Africa. The near future will prove that here is a nation of salty white people. Their government is letting them down just as ours has and for the same reason. But the white people of South Africa generally know who they are and will soon demonstrate it. Willy Mandella and the Xhosa tribe will lose the support of the Communist African National Congress (ANC) for the same reason Cuba is losing its support. They will continue to fight the Zulus for Black man superiority.

To allow the African National Congress to continue to operate, the conspiracy is now attempting to install the ANC as the national police force of South Africa. If this is accomplished, it will be tantamount to the Communist ANC ruling the country. In all parts of Africa, the police force rules the nation.

The white people of South Africa, particularly the Boers in the Northern part, are going to resist and severe civil unrest is beginning to happen. Here again, this entire scenario appears to be controlled and for the purpose of creating a national disturbance.

Israel. Once again, we can count on Israel to be the agitator. The catalyst to ignite the entire world into "wars and rumors of wars" will be that little illegal sandbox in the Mideast.

The Israeli military and the commentators in their news services are predicting that the ongoing diplomatic peace conferences will fail and the end result will be war with the Arabs. They are telling the public in Israel of the various scenarios and they are extremely varied. They talk about it perhaps being a war centering in Iran. They talk about the possibilities of the war including Pakistan as well as other countries farther East than the Arabs.

This is the classical method used by the Jews to justify a pre-emptive strike to initiate the war. For example, Moshe Arens, the defense minister, stated that "everything should be done to prevent states like Iran from acquiring any nuclear expertise and technology." Pakistan was included in the discussions with the news media. Pakistan retorted by saying that they didn't have the nuclear bomb but that they had the technical capability and the materials to put them together in a hurry if needed. That statement by Pakistan could very well be the same "tongue in cheek" that Israel used when they told the world that they didn't have the bomb.

The Israeli's are planning on pre-emptive strikes on probably several Moslem countries and they are hinting that they will use their nuclear arsenal in the process. This has the Bush administration paranoid and it is exactly what Israel wants.

We can expect the United States to offer the Jews "the heavens and earth" (their quote, not mine-ed.) to keep them from using their nuclear bombs.

The technique is always the same. Make inordinate demands of the United States and haggle. Keep on haggling like fish mongers and then meet the United States half way. That will be what they wanted in the first place.

What they want is the guarantee that the United States will support them in any effort against the Moslems. Of course, Billy Graham, Pat Robertson, Jerry Falwell and the rest of the evangelicals will preach from their pulpits the importance of this for the good of "Judeo-Christianity."

Germany. There is no question but that Germany will be the next superpower economically. Currently there is a period of adjustment while they realign with the old East Germany. But as soon as this is completed, the reunited Germany will rise to superpower status. They have always been the natural leader of the European community. They will take the leadership, once again, in the economic coalition taking place in Europe. We will realize in the near future what a profound effect this will have on the United States.

But, in Germany too, there appears to be severe unrest in the making. In an earlier issue of the Intelligence Newsletter, we showed where a contest for world power was being fought between two power groups. One is the Anglophile international bankers with headquarters in London and New York. The other power group is the Jewish Zionist bankers with their headquarters at the time also in New York. The fight is still in progress but it appears that the headquarters of the Zionist bankers is moving.

The German American National Political Action Committee, P.O. Box 1137, Santa Monica CA 90406, publishes a monthly newsletter titled GANPAC BRIEF. The Chairman of this PAC is Mr. Hans Schmidt who is a German-American having come here following World War II. He is a very keen observer of European affairs with information being received on a daily basis.

The current issue of the GANPAC BRIEF reports this: "As I am closing this letter in the middle of January 1992, there are indications that Europe, and particularly Germany, now seem to have fallen almost totally under Jewish/Zionist suzerainty. In other words, the WASPs under Bush's (Queen Elizabeth?-ed.) leadership have lost out there. The major reason for this development can be the continuing withdrawal from Germany of U.S. (occupation) troops. WASP power was and is (obviously?) closely connected to the U.S. military, and the fewer American soldiers on German soil, the less input the WASPs will have. Jewish/Zionist power, on the other hand, rests mainly on its control over the media, and the immense financial wealth that is at its disposal. If this assessment is correct, and if the WASPs currently in possession of the U.S. Administration are thinking along the same line, then we can soon expect a royal battle for ultimate control of America. Up to now the two internationalist superpowers (the WASPs and the Zionists) seem to have been content to rule the USA together."

Mr. Schmidt also makes this analysis: "If one views the two prior world wars of this century from my vantage point (an ex- European citizen with political science training-ed.), and acknowledges that they and the final round (which has started in the Balkan peninsula) together constitute 'The Wars of European Succession', namely, really a closely interconnected series of historical events with the same cause and effect, then it follows that the next ten years or so will see a replay of World Wars I and II, only more so. In other words, the geometric progression from 1914-18 to 1939-45 of the numbers of human beings killed (murdered), and of entire populations criminally displaced from their homelands will continue, and soon see a finale that will surely be regarded as the modern-day Armageddon Christians and Jews have been predicting."

"It is obvious that most of the current fighting everywhere evolves around race, religion and ethnicity (nationalism). These primordial human instincts had been forcibly suppressed nearly everywhere in the world since 1945, and are now coming out with a vengeance. It is idiotic to assume that the United States, with its incredible mix of races, religions and ethnic groups, will remain unaffected. And, it is ludicrous to assume that with the example of the breakup of empires and multi-nation states such as the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia right before our eyes, we must not expect the eventual breakup (as a result of the natural forces mentioned) of this nation also." End of quotes from GANPAC.

Mr. Schmidt also stated that both the United States and the Soviet Union have disarmed themselves because of the reliance on nuclear weapons and strategic warfare. This is true; however, the United States, with the Anglophile Bank of England and Federal Reserve Central Bank consortium, has been preparing for this contingency.

The majority of Americans knows by now (or should) that our Government has been planning, preparing and training for a civil war concept. The entire FEMA concept is the centerpiece of this planning. Military units, National Guard and Regulars, have been training for such a scenario. By various means, from FEMA documents to the news media, disinformation has been leaked that such training is to handle situations such as "200,000 Hispanics from Central and South America create civil unrest and must be stopped." That was the scenario in the "cable-spicer" and "garden-plot" programs in California.

The current rash of bashing the white man in America (that we are reading as in the Esquire article and seeing on TV) tells us what their hangup is. This is the bottom line, the purpose, of this issue of this newsletter. What is to become of us?

Mr. Schmidt discussed the total ruthlessness of "Sherman's march to the sea" during the Civil War. He accurately stated how the South was totally impoverished after the Civil War with the reconstruction and carpetbagging programs. He also could have included our recent display of inhumanity to Iraq and the British example of doing the same thing to Iraq in the 1920's. Of course England, the other partner in the Bank of England-Federal Reserve consortium, invented the concept of the concentration camps during the Boer War with the South Africans in 1899.

There have been numerous talk shows and other reports telling about the large and growing number of concentration camps being built in the United States at this very moment. Some of the camps have been created from existing facilities such as closed Army forts. But apparently the largest share of them are open fields of about 80 to 160 acres each with the only facility included being a tall chain link fence around the boundary. Some have been marked with signs such as "Keep Out, Zoo Annex." Most are just vacant. Some are being built in wilderness areas in the Western mountains. There the fence is even partially buried to prevent digging underneath.

Airline pilots are reporting sightings of these fenced-in areas as they fly over the country. There is one reported in Alaska being prepared to handle one and a half million people. Could this be done to American citizens?

TOP: This is a future concentration camp located near Topeka, KS. The empty field is 80 acres. There is a sign on the fence simply stating "Zoo Annex." This shows an ugly sense of humor but is in keeping with the Talmudic concept that we are just animals. Investigation by local citizens has discovered that the property is under the control of the "Department of Corrections."

BOTTOM: This picture was taken in 1945 by the U.S. Army of a concentration camp in the American sector of Germany. These German prisoners are packed in a feed lot but with starvation rations and very little water. Over one million men died in these camps in the most brutal manner ever recorded in military history.

power of God, they will know that they are defeated. God will no longer be separated from us when the world knows that we demand to live by the laws, statutes and judgments that were given to us so long ago.

Study the two photographs carefully. The one at the top is located in Kansas in the Topeka area. The one at the bottom was located in Germany, along the Rhine river, AFTER World War II. Do not think for a moment that what you see here was only a holding pen for a few hours until POW's could be moved to more humane quarters. Men, and boys as young as 14 year old, lived here with no facilities of any sort for shelter. There were no latrines, no mess halls, no tents or beds, no water to speak of and almost no food. And yet, there was food stored in warehouses not being used. Men had to dig into the ground to provide a modicum of shelter for themselves, such as a groundhog or a rat would do. They drank their own urine to keep from dehydrating. Then dozers would come in and blade the dirt back level while men were in the holes.

The Lesson. As the men of Israel said to Peter in Acts 2:37, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" Before we discuss that, the reader must understand that one should not call this writer a wimp. Before the biggest majority of Americans alive today were born, this "senior citizen" was attached to an infantry division, under General George Patton. We were on the front lines constantly from Utah Beach to the Elbe River. Death doesn't have the same meaning to a combat soldier who has participated in it at the wholesale level.

We, as a people, must understand that we have purposefully been removed from our God and His Laws. The church going, Bible-thumping, Judeo-Christian can object all he wants to but the fact remains, we, as a people, have been removed from our God. The enemy, the antichrists, know this far better than we do. They gloat over their successes. But they are going to choke on that gloating, if they haven't started already.

As long as we are separated from our God, we can't even think about success against the enemy. When our enemies come to realize that the majority of our people have, once again, come in contact with the

The signs are beginning to show. Everywhere we go, we see more and more people willing to talk about the real problems in America and they are stiffening their backbone for the battle to come.

As an example, we will be victorious when we are willing to follow the example given to us by Caractacus, the Welch Pendragon or Supreme Commander, and those early Britons who fought with him against the legendary Roman Legions. The year was 43 A.D. and the Edict of Claudius Caesar was to destroy totally this new nation of Christians there in Southwest England near Glastonbury. Caractacus is given official credit for being the first general to lead a Christian army in battle in defense of the faith.

Tacitus, Martial, Juvenal and others, who were the foremost writers of the Roman Empire told, with ungrudging admiration, the story of these Silurian warriors, led by Caractacus, Arviragus and the Christian Priests. They told of how these Christian warriors kept sweeping onward in irresistible waves over the bodies of their dead and dying comrades with a battling savagery that appalled the hardened, war-scarred veterans of the Roman Legion.

All the while that the Roman Empire conquered and occupied the largest part of England, they never penetrated the Christian sector in Southwest England. The Roman writers referred to this part of England as "territory inaccessible to the Roman where Christ is taught." Lucanus, A.D. 38, in his works Pharsalia, wrote that these people's indifference to death was the result of their religious beliefs. Pomponius Mela, wrote in A.D. 41 that their extraordinary bravery was because of their religious doctrine, based on the resurrection.

Yes, our choice between rising to the bait or ignoring this current intentional bash of white Christian Americans will be easy to make when we re-acquire the faith of Caractacus and his warriors.
