Once Upon a Generation...

Thursday, June 14th at 6:30pm

Join us for the culmination of a nine-week intergenerational program, connecting our local Lakeville and Freetown seniors with experienced storytelling students from the George R. Austin Intermediate School and Freetown/Lakeville Middle School. These true stories are glimpses into the past, of lives changed, transformed and enriched by their experiences.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Lakeville Cultural Council, a local agency, which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Teen Summer Painting Monday, July 16th at 6:00

Ages 10 & up Limited to 30 artists
Registration opens June 18th

In a relaxed social setting the Pop Up Art School will guide participants step-by-step through the workshop. The workshop will focus on the art of Peter Max, known for his bright 1960s paintings and will be the inspiration for a lesson in one-point perspective. The finished drawing will show simple shapes projected into the foreground from one point on the horizon. Color will be applied using watercolor paints and markers.

All paintings will be displayed during the month of October in the Great Ponds Gallery.

This program is supported by a grant from the Lakeville Arts Council.

During the months of June and July, the Great Ponds Gallery will feature an exhibit by Lakeville resident and textile artist Ruth Gross titled "People and Places". She replicates a photograph of a building, portrait or landscape by layering 100% cotton fabrics. Once the picture is constructed, the quilt is sandwiched with batting and backing and all the edges are sewn down.
