NDGA's Annual Meeting during the 2018 NDGA Vintage, Decorative & Collectible Glass Show held in New Orleans this past July

During the meeting Keely Stockman was recognized as doing an outstanding job as National Show Chairman and presented a lovely hand painted Candlewick Footed Fruit Compote by NDGA President Pam Meyer. (pictured on the left). Keely presented the NDGA with a piece she bought at this show representing something meaningful (pictured on the right). She chose a Candlewick cup and saucer with original label. Her first visit to a NDGA show was last year with Alice Lowe (looking for Candlewick items) and Lou Read (looking for cup and saucer sets). As most of you know Keely collects items with original labels. What a perfect combination.

Again, thank you Keely for representing our club and presenting our city in such a positive light.

Program:

Hop-a-long Cassidy collection Harold Theard

Harold Theard's collection from his childhood was featured in the local newspaper (held by Bonnie Theard) when the collection was displayed at the Jefferson Parish Library East Bank. Included were signed comic books, stamps, cups, Time Magazine cover, lunch box, pocket knives, fridge magnets, and a picture of Harold as a child with Hoppy (actor William Lawrence Boyd) at the Roosevelt Hotel's Blue Room in 1952 during his visit to New Orleans.

Bonnie Theard is holding a picture of Harold's father, Harold Theard Sr. with Hopalong Cassidy's horse Topper during the New Orleans visit.
