

Why is Frederick right for you?

We welcome you and your family to consider Frederick as you new home.

The City of Frederick is a community with prominent historical significance that serves as an anchor for the I-270 Technology Corridor with close proximity to major metropolitan areas such as Baltimore and Washington, D.C. and serves as the gateway to the mountains.

Two factors contribute to making Frederick a truly unique and special place to live and work - the rich combination of recreation, social, cultural and employment opportunities and the significant opportunities for citizen involvement.

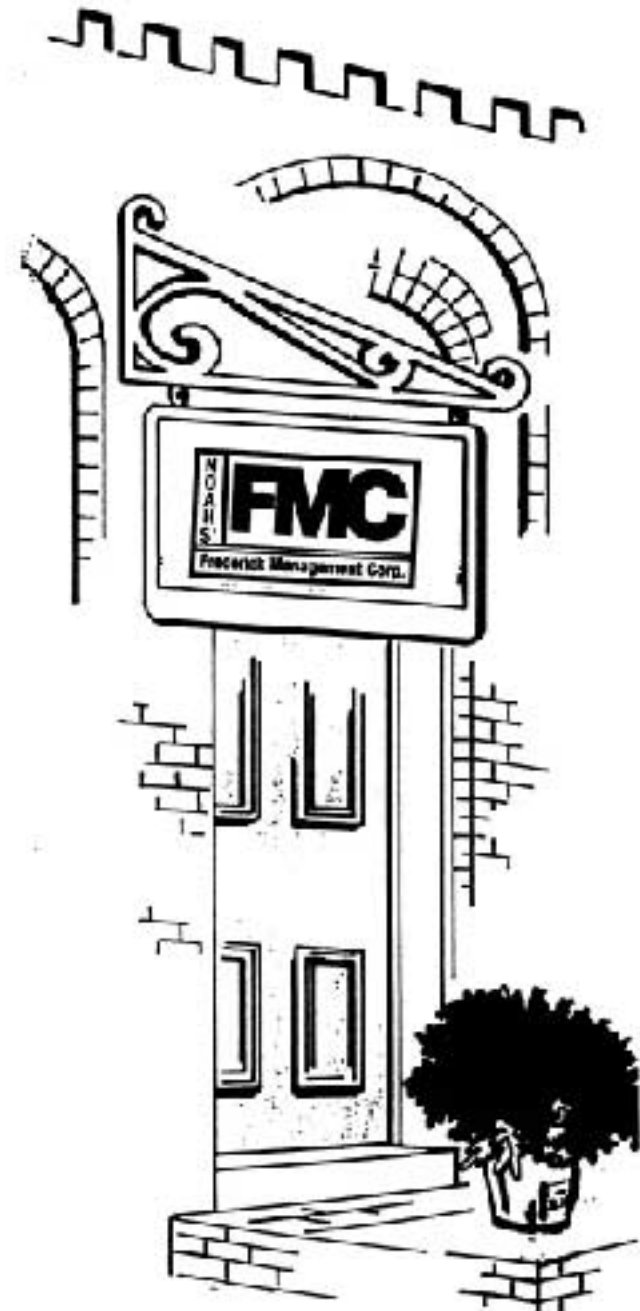

Noahs' FMC is a unique property management firm.

Exceeding, rather than meeting our customers expectations is the secret to our success.
