

Richmond Teachers Association (RTA)

The Richmond Teachers' Association supports broad based discussion and action by both individuals and groups, such as Richmond Schools Stand United, who are dedicated to improving public education. The serious underfunding of BC's public education system continues to create challenges, including widespread school closures and critically needed seismic upgrades. We encourage everyone to become involved.

~RTA, September 16, 2016