

1. At different times, there were unmarked police cars near Rick's home when we were first started dating. Rick commented to me that this was wrongful use of public money for a private purpose. I also observed an unmarked police car follow us from his home one evening. JP
2. On the way to Bon Apetite where Rick was going to give an engagement ring to me, Rick stated to me that the way a Clearwater Police cruiser was driving may have been part of harassment. On the way back to my house after dinner, a Clearwater Police cruiser turned in front of us (about one-half a block away) from the same intersection as the other cruiser previously turned into. It was nighttime and no other cars were on the Landmark Blvd. The cruiser turned right on Masters Drive which is the turn that I take to drive home. Rick turned right on Masters. Then the cruiser turned left onto a small street. Less than 5 seconds after Rick drove past the small street, the cruiser backed out of the street and went back to Landmark Drive. I told Rick that the situation was very weird. Rick replied, no Jennifer, that was not very weird, that was harassment. JB
3. There was a deputy sheriff's cruiser parked in front of Rick house. The officer told Rick he was there because a Countryside student was at large. Rick asked the officer to move, which he did reluctantly. I told Rick to get the cruiser's license plate. Rick said that it did not matter because there was nothing Rick could do anyway. JP
4. After Rick called me to meet him for dinner at Ban Thai Restaurant, I saw a sheriff cruiser parked in front of the restaurant. I commented to Rick that I had never seen a sheriff cruiser there. No memory of this
5. Recently, when Rick and I went to the Boston Market in the evening, there were no cars in the parking lot. Just after we parked, a sheriff's cruiser parked next to us. It remained there when we finished our dinner, and did not leave until after we left the parking lot. JP
6. Rick reported to the sheriff's office that my ex-husband committed domestic violence against my son on his birthday. This information is what I told Rick during a dinner at Outback Steakhouse. Late the next evening (shortly after Rick left my house for the night), he came back to tell me that he was wrongfully stopped by a Clearwater Police a half a block from my house (i.e., a Clearwater Police cruiser was stopped at an intersection with a stop sign. Rick said there were no other cars. Rick further told me that he could either wait behind the cop who was stopped for over a minute or two, go around him to make a right turn, or do nothing). JP

7. On the way to Home Depot or Staples, Rick said to expect deputy sheriff's and Clearwater Police cruisers before we got to Sonny's Restaurant (based on the way a sheriff's cruiser was driving). We saw 6-7 cruisers within 3 minutes or so during a drive of about 1/4 mile. B
8. When I yelled to Rick in Rick's bedroom about a roach, two scream-like sounds went off on Rick's iphone which was in his pocket. No memory
9. Just before Rick was BBQing, music started playing on Rick's iphone (which was in his pocket). Did not hear this
10. Rick showed me an email from his client which stated that at a recent hearing with the judge present, Rick's iphone started playing music just as the judge asked Rick to present his case. JP
11. My own iphone's alarm went off much earlier during the night than I had set it. I Also, the ringtone which went off was one I do not use. P
