

SOPHIE CLARK

1924 - 1987

Sophie Clark, age 63 of Caseville, passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, July 1 at St. Mary's Hospital, Saginaw, five hours after being struck by a pick-up at the intersection of East Huron Avenue and North Port Crescent Street in downtown Bad Axe.

Mrs. Clark was born Jan. 15, 1924 in Pennsylvania, daughter of the late John and Katherine (Cieleski) Morgik. She was united in marriage to Ralph Clark in 1943 in Detroit. He preceded her in death in 1983. She had moved from Detroit to Lake Township, near Caseville, in 1986 where she had vacationed for many years. She was a member of St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville and the Caseville Fraternal Order of Eagles Auxiliary.

Surviving her are a son, Gregory Clark of Caseville; three brothers, Edward Morgik of Blough, Pa., John Morgik of Alameda, Calif. and William Morgik of Appling, Ga.; two sisters, -Mrs. Charles (Nellie) Milius of Detroit and Mrs. Josephine Michaels of Oscoda.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Stanley Morgik, Carl Morgik and James Morgik and one sister, Mary Daves.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, July 4 at 11 a.m. at St. Roch Catholic Church. The Rev. Fr. Theodore LaMarre officiated with burial in the church cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were conducted by the Caseville Chapel of Champagne Funeral Chapels.

Friends and relatives wishing to send memorials are invited to consider Huron Community Mental Health Services.