

Head Games the Salon

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy is intended to make you aware of Head Games the Salon (We/Our), our line of business, services provided, how you can contact us and schedule appointments.

Head Games the Salon is the business of providing hair care services to individuals who chose to make hair appointments with us. We provide a variety of hair services that are intent to cleanse, condition, rearrange the hair in any and all manner needed. In addition, you can be assured that all stylists who are employed at Head Games the Salon are licensed by the Georgia State Board of Cosmetology.

After deciding that you'd like to schedule an appointment with us, you can do that on our website. Our website uses a third-party online scheduling software by "Acuity Scheduling". This software gathers information from you, our potential clients. This information gathered is available for our stylists to use to assist our stylist in determining the best services based on your wants and needs. In addition to our clients providing personal information and details about their hair, we also provide a platform to collect deposits used to secure appointments.

When we request a deposit from you through our website, your information is entered securely through our appointment scheduler, "Acuity Scheduling", and then the debiting and credit of the funds from your bank is processed through "Square". The information provided by you to collected for the purpose of cashing out the balance due regarding your appointment request.

You can be assured that neither Head Games the Salon, nor its stylists gather or retain any private personal financial account information for any reason or purpose, ever. Once you schedule your own appointments, then enter your own financial information, we do not handle any card information until you are in the salon and ready to pay you final balance with a swipe of your card.

Considering everything mentioned above, by using our website and scheduling appointments on our website, you are acknowledging that you are aware of all information provided her for you here in our privacy policy.

Head Games the Salon thanks you for you trust and support, and for allowing us to service your hair care needs.

Updated 9/8/2019