Two EWG Youth Soccer Association Academy Players called in to join the U12 U.S. Soccer Developmental Academy (DA) at Bayside FC, RI

Eli Beltran and Jacob Dounetos (EWG U11 Academy)

EXETER-WEST GREENWICH, RI - EWG Youth Soccer Academy players Eli Beltran and Jacob Dounetos have been called in to U12 Bayside FC DA Team. These players are in their second season with EWG Academy partnership with NE Revolution Academy.

To improve U.S. Soccer's longer term objectives for talent identification and individual development of young players, the DA programs are focused highlighting each player's unique talents while challenging them to improve decision making, increase speed of play, raise tactical awareness, and improve technical execution.

The Development Academy (DA) follows a comprehensive review of elite player development in the United States and around the world. The Academy Program's philosophy is based on increased training, less total games, and more meaningful games using international rules of competition. The Academy Program focuses on positively impacting everyday club environments to assist in maximizing youth player development across the country. The Academy values individual development of elite players over winning trophies and titles. The Academy sets the standard for elite environments for youth soccer clubs nationwide and is a part of U.S. Soccer's global leadership position in youth soccer that will impact thousands of players.
