A Note from Rick: It was a good week for markets at TLA. On Tuesday, markets were all steady to stronger. The Hay market has been steady for the last couple of months. Good quality, 1st cutting hay has been ranging from $160-$200/ton. Top quality, 2nd & 3rd cutting hay has been ranging from $220-$280/ton. The calf market was stronger again this week for both heifers and bulls. The slaughter market was steady for both cows and steers. Feeders were not really tested, but will get a good test this week at our August Special Feeder Sale. The Special Springer Sale on Thursday was a nice surprise. Although this market has been trending upward for the last couple of months, I didn't expect prices to jump as much as they did on Thursday. Prices were a little stronger throughout the sale, but there were a couple of groups of outstanding heifers that took prices to a different level than we've seen in quite some time. We did have a few less head on Thursday and I think that contributed to the stronger prices. Milk prices still aren't anything to brag about and with the futures prices being very volatile. I'd say the smaller number of cattle for sale on the market is the biggest cause of the current market strength. We enjoyed having the TLA Haflinger/Draft Pony Show here this past weekend. The weather held out and we were able to see some impressive hitches compete. We have enjoyed getting to meet so many great people. Have a great week and we hope to see you soon at TLA!
