DRESS CODE

Dress for the camp is casual, but neat and that follows the 4-H dress code. Athletic or tennis type shoes are preferred.

NO flip-flops or open back shoes – camp is on a hillside with a lot of rocks, making these type shoes dangerous. Water or lake shoes are also recommended.

Bring clothes and shoes appropriate for active sports, swimsuits, water shoes, outdoor recreation, and a dance. Tennis or athletic shoes are required for the Ropes Course. Incoming and Outgoing District Council Officers will need to bring a nice outfit appropriate for the Officer Installation.

Items NOT allowed – tops with spaghetti straps, halter type tops, shirts that reveal the bare midriff, excessively loose-fitting pants/jeans, short shorts or skirts, clothing advertising referencing alcohol, drugs, violence or having a sexual content. See-through or muscle shirts are not appropriate for boys at camp. Two-piece swimsuits are NOT allowed and girls must wear a t-shirt over their one-piece swimsuit.

WHAT TO BRING

All

participates (youth and Agents) will be housed in dorm facilities.

The following items are needed:

Pillow, sheets, blanket and/or sleeping bag, towels, washcloths, toiletries, reusable drink bottles, bug spray, sunscreen, and a flashlight.

Card or board games, snacks, and money for camp store for snacks or souvenirs.

WHAT NOT TO BRING

Please do not bring valuable electronic equipment.

Do not bring water guns, water sling shots, shaving cream (unless for personal use), video games, or fireworks.

CELL PHONES

Campers will be asked to leave their cell phones in their dorm rooms during the day and evening activities.

CODE OF CONDUCT

4-H members should have completed a “Consequences of Behavior” and “Code of Conduct” form when enrolling in 4H Online for the 2020-2021 4-H year. These documents will be followed during the Ultra Leadership Lab.
