

35th ANNUAL
TAMAQUA HERITAGE FESTIVAL
SUNDAY OCTOBER 13, 2019
10 to 5 PM
DOWNTOWN TAMAQUA, PA

- A large craft and street vendor fair downtown rain or shine!
- Booths by many local organizations, school groups, scouts, churches, fire and police
- Tons of ethnic and other great festival foods
- Jukebox Cruisers Car Show on South Railroad Street
- Childrens Amusement rides and games on South Railroad Street
- Tamaqua Heritage Players skit in front of the train station
- Coal region folk Musician Dave Matsinko
- Tamaqua Area Historical Museum open – mining, railroads, Molly Maguires and much more!
- 100th Anniversary of the end of WW I display and demonstration near the train station
- Blacksmithing demonstrations by Don Campbell
- 1848 Hegarty Blacksmith Shop tours
- Victorian HiWheeler bicyclists
- Tamaqua Anthracite Model Railroad operating layout in the Masonic Bldg. on West Broad St.
- Leiby's Horsedrawn trolley car rides at Berwick St.
- Guided tours of Padora's coal-fired bakery at 11 and 1 PM starting from the train station lobby
- Train station open all day
- Leiby's Autumn Harvest Market on West Broad St. at Hunter St.
- WMGH Polka Program live broadcast with Polka Joe Manjack in front of the Museum
- DJ Shawn spinning your coal region favorites in front of the Museum Annex
- Tink's Antiques open on South Railroad St. 9 to 5
- Local restaurants and some businesses open during the festival
- Children's amusements and games on South Railroad St.

PRESENTED BY THE TAMAQUA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

610-597-6722

dalefreud@gmail.com for registration or information