Prayer

Gracious God, you have been our shelter from one generation to the next. In the shade of a tree, the blush of a rose, the rising of the sun we find ourselves in your presence. May we find everyday practices filled with the call to love and peace. Open our arms to carry one another's burdens. Speak with our lips the words of hope. Urge our feet to march in solidarity with the wounded and teach us to be the household of God together. Amen.

Song Be Thou My Vision Audrey Assad

Joys and Concerns (please send me your joys and concerns for prayer)

As always, please keep one another in your thoughts and prayers.

- Healing for new Covid-19 outbreaks.
- The frontline people who work on our behalf.
- Those who march and call for justice.
- The Bowlsby Family as George's son David (58) is now on Hospice.
- Mildred Wells, Colleen Rivers and family.
- Leona Ulberg, as she cares for her sister and gives respite to her nephew.
- Tami Weitman recovering from surgery.

Life finds a way...

Prayer

God of spirit and flesh, God of heaven and earth, God of grape and grain, we stretch out our arms in need of you. We feed ourselves with gifts from you. We thank you for your love poured out as we sense your spirit shining in the sunlight, sailing on the summer wind, and singing in the souls of each one gathered here.

Recreate us in your image as we live in you today, that our lives might ignite a love to light the world. Where there are heavy hearts and despair, let us bring hope. Let your presence pressing through us lift joy to those in need. Amen

Let us join together in the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: John 2: 1-11

The Wedding at Cana

2 On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” 4 And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.” 5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” 6 Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. 7 Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. 8 He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.” So they took it. 9 When the that had become wine, and did not (though the servants who had drawn steward called the bridegroom 10 and serves the good wine first, and then the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.” 11 Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

THANK YOU so much for your generosity for the life of our church family, staff, and our ongoing ministry together. Mere words cannot express our deepest appreciation. With your help we will be able to pay our on-going bills and make employee payroll for the weeks ahead.

Prayer: Let us hold our hearts open to God. When thoughts of worries come, let us release them and return to restful openness. Let us breathe in the presence of God who is always closer to us than we are to ourselves. May we be led to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God more nearly, day by day. Thanks be to God. Amen.
