

McMinn Senior Activity Center

Healthy mind, body, and spirit.

2023 Annual Community Pledge

Founded in 1974 the McMinn Senior Activity Center has evolved to meet the needs of older people in McMinn County, and we are proud of the work that continues every day. Together, with our many partners, the compassionate staff and talented volunteers will continue to meet the needs of senior citizens as well as the needs of their families and caregivers for another 50 years!

$100 | Friend

You will help provide 3 senior citizens with a 1-year membership giving them the opportunity to age successfully with a healthy mind, body, and spirit.

$250 | Bronze

You will help 20 senior citizens participate in health and fitness activities for 1 year- helping them to live a long, healthier life.

$500 | Silver

You will help feed 1 food insecure senior citizen 1 nutritious meal a day for an entire year and promote their economic well-being.

$1,000 | Gold

You will provide 24 senior citizens access to public health benefits counseling and aid through the Senior Advocate Program.

$2,500 | Platinum

You will help 36 senior citizens participate in daily social and recreational activities at the Senior Activity Center and help delay chronic disease and increase mental well-being.

$5,000 | Legacy

You will help at-risk seniors benefit from the vital programs at the McMinn Senior Activity Center, fostering their independence and well-being and enhancing their dignity and respect.
