Prayer and Preaching

As We Gather ~ The Steward's Shrewdness Sanctified

"The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness" (Luke 16:1–9). The steward's shrewdness is praiseworthy for two reasons. First, he knew the master would be merciful. He trusted that the master would honor the debts he forgave in the master's name. In the same way, though we have squandered our heavenly Father's possessions in selfishness and sin, Jesus is the Steward who has canceled our debt, knowing that His forgiveness will be honored by the Father because of the holy cross. Secondly, the steward was shrewd in using oil and wheat to provide for his earthly welfare. So also do these earthly elements aid us when pressed into heavenly use in the anointing of baptism and the wheat of the Lord's Supper. Those who have the Sacraments will have an eternal home when their earthly home fails. These provide us aid in times of temptation (1 Cor. 10:6–13). For the Lord is our strength and a shield to all who trust in Him (2 Sam. 22:26–34).

Reading

2 Samuel 22:26–34

26“With the steadfast faithful you show yourself to be steadfast faithful;
 with the blameless man you show yourself to be blameless;
 27with the pure you show yourself to be pure,
 and with the crooked you show yourself to be shrewd.
 28You save a lowly people,
 but your eyes are on the haughty to bring them down.

29 For you are my lamp, YHWH,
and YHWH lightens my darkness.
30 For with you I can rush against a troop,
and with my God I can leap over a wall.
31 This God—his way is blameless;
the word of YHWH is pure;
he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.

32 “For who is God, other than YHWH?
And who is a rock, other than our God?
33 He is the God who clothes me with strength and makes my way blameless.
34 He makes my feet like a deer
and makes me stand on the heights.”

L This is the Word of the Lord.
C Thanks be to God.

Reading

1 Corinthians 10:6–13

6 Now these things took place as types of us, for us not be desirers of evil, just as also they desired; 7 neither be idolaters, just as some of them; as it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.”

8Neither be sexually immoral, just as some of them were sexually immoral, and twenty-three thousand fell one day. 9Neither put Christ to the test, just as some of them tested and were destroyed by serpents. 10Neither murmur, just as some of them murmured and were destroyed by the Destroyer. 11But these types happened continually to them, and were written regarding to teach us, upon whom the end of the ages has reached. 12So that the one believing he is standing, watch that he does not fall. 13No temptation has come upon you that is not from man, and God is faithful. He will not let you alone with the temptation above what you are able, but will make you with the temptation also an exit for you to be able to endure.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Reading

Luke 16:1–13

1[Jesus] also said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. 2And he called him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’ 3And the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. 4I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses.’ 5So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ 6He said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ 7Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’ 8The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. 9And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings.

10“One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. 11If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? 12And if you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own? 13No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Scripture Lessons for next Sunday: Jeremiah 8:4–12, 1 Corinthians 12:1–11 and Luke 19:41–48.

Stewardship: Luke 16:8-9 – “... For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings.” The things of this world, including wealth, are merely tools. They can be used for good or ill. They can be squandered or used efficiently. How we use them will be determined by what is most important to us. What is most important to you in your life? Does the way you use the things of this world reflect that?

Building Healthy Families for Aug. 1st: Did you know a snail can sleep for three years? What a long nap! Although we do not sleep that long, Jesus offers a greater rest. In Matthew 11:28 he tells us, “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.” During the coming week, take Jesus up on His offer for rest from the worries of this world. ~ Lutheran Family Service of Iowa: Des Moines (515) 251-4900. www.LutheranFamilyService.org

Life Quote for Aug. 1st: “Your Heavenly Father loves you in spite of your many failings. The Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, is now interceding on your behalf at the throne of God every time you stumble and fall. The Holy Spirit of the blessed Trinity is at your side convicting you of your sin but then also assuring you that every last one of your sins has been totally forgiven. He, the Spirit, then also plants deep into your heart God’s gift of faith and hope.” Rev. Dr. Wallace Schulz, The Lutheran Hour ~ A “Life Quote” from Lutherans For Life www.lutheransforlife.org

Life Thoughts in the Church Year: Trinity IX – Temptations to idolatry exist today as they did in biblical times. The great idol “Death” draws many to its altar. They look to death for rescue from a crisis pregnancy or chronic disease or pain. Death’s allure is so great it even tempts Christians to bow before it. But we have a way out of such temptations to faithlessness: “God is faithful” (1 Corinthians 10:1-13). Christ our “Rock” never leaves us (10:4). We can trust in Him. Rock of our salvation, may Your faithful service to us through Your cross and resurrection move us to be faithful to You. Amen.

THE LWML NOISY BUCKET IS BACK!!!

Start saving your change – the NOISY BUCKET will be out on Sunday, August 29, 2021 (Immanuel's Christian Education Sunday)! We will be collecting change (and paper money) for the Iowa East District LWML Mission Grants. Due to the Corona virus, churches not having LWML meetings, our zones not having rallies, and churches not having in-person services, the District Mites are behind for the 2020-2022 by about $50,000. We put all things in God's hands – our Mission Grant projects (a list of those is on the bulletin board by the kitchen), our blessings, and our contributions. Thank you in advance for your contributions on Sunday, August 29th.

In other LWML news, I want to thank the members of Immanuel that contributed items for the Gifts from the Heart projects that were collected at our National Convention held in Lexington, KY from June 24-27: Overall, almost 500 boxes and packages of diapers, almost 500 baby blankets, almost 900 burp cloths and bibs, over 1320 packages of baby wipes, and almost 1200 toys, teethingers, and pacifiers were collected for the Assurance for Life Ministries in Lexington; 6008 pairs of eyeglasses were collected for MOST Ministries (Mission Opportunities Short Term), and $33,270 in gift cards, plus 444 more gift cards that were not marked monetarily for our two Seminaries (Ft. Worth and St. Louis) Food Banks and Co-ops. In addition to all of these contributions our church (ladies and children) colored cards for cancer patients for Phil's Friends and also sent bracelets and crocheted puppets to MOST Ministries.

Events coming up for ALL women of Immanuel to be thinking about attending are:

1. September 11, 2021 - Fall Retreat at Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca – see information and Registration in the bulletin. Kids are WELCOME!!
2. October 30, 2021- Marshalltown Zone Rally held at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Lacona. Gary Thies will be the guest speaker.
3. June 10-11, 2022 – Iowa East LWML Convention at Hilton Garden Inn, Cedar Falls.

In closing, remember all women that are members of Immanuel are considered members of LWML also. If you are free from 11:30 – 1:00, on the 2nd Monday any month, we welcome you to attend our meeting and Bible study with Pastor Koepp.

Serving the Lord with gladness,
Pam H.
