

Pick The Pros- The Curve Inn Rules for 2015 Season

POOL FORMAT

This is a Standard Pickem pool where you pick all the games on the picksheet, either against the spread or straight up (see POINTSPREADS section) and where the standings are based on your win-loss record.

POOL SCHEDULE

This pool starts with NFL Week 1 and ends with the regular NFL football season and does not include playoffs.

WEEKLY STANDINGS

The Weekly Standings in this pool are based on 'Wins'. The person with the most wins is ranked highest.

If there is a tie after 'Wins', the first tiebreaker is 'MNF Total'. The person who most closely picks the total combined score by both teams in the Monday night game is ranked highest. Going over or under does not matter. If there is no Monday night game, the website will designate a replacement game.

If there is a tie after 'MNF Total', it will be considered a tie.

SEASON STANDINGS

The Standings in this pool are based on 'Wins'. The person with the most wins is ranked highest.

If there is a tie after 'Wins', the first tiebreaker is 'MNF Total'. The person who most closely picks the total combined score by both teams in the Monday Night Football (MNF) game wins this tiebreaker. Going over or under does not matter. For the season tiebreaker, it is the cumulative absolute difference between your predictions and the final score. For example, if you were off by 4 the first week and -4 the second week, your absolute difference would be 8 after 2 weeks.

If there is a tie after 'MNF Total', it will be considered a tie.

CONFIRMING PICKS

It is your responsibility to confirm that your own picks are accepted by the website. You should see the Congratulations Screen after submitting your picks and you should receive a pick confirmation email. If you are still unsure if your picks were accepted, you should return to the picksheet, not by using your browser's back button, but by clicking on the My Picks link. If your picks were accepted they will be prefilled on the picksheet.

POSTPONED GAMES

If a game is postponed to a later week, all the picks for that game will be deleted by the website. The website will send an email notification to the people who picked that game and their pool managers. Whether they get the email or not, it is the responsibility of the individual pool member to know that the game was postponed and to enter a new pick (if necessary) before the pick deadline passes.

DISPUTES

If there is ever a discrepancy between what the website shows and what the player says he/she entered, the website will be considered correct. If there is ever a discrepancy between what the website shows and a pick confirmation email, the website will be considered correct.
