

Audits

The complete financial records of NWBOCES, as well as records of individual school accounts, are open to audit at any time by the Wyoming Department of Audit.

The Board shall follow the requirements for audits by the state examiner for maintaining an efficient system for recording and safeguarding NWBOCES and school funds. In addition the Board may order a private audit of NWBOCES accounts at its discretion.