

THE STORYBOOK PROJECT, Calico Rock

On Monday, October 10, the Storybook Project volunteers met at the Calico Rock Cumberland Presbyterian Church for our training session. The church also graciously lets us store our books and mailing envelopes in a classroom.

On Tuesday, October 11, our volunteers visited the North Central Unit, Calico Rock. These volunteers are:

Patricia Arnold, Horseshoe Bend
Shirley Blankenship, Horseshoe Bend
Patsy Britt, Horseshoe Bend
Claire Cresto, Calico Rock
Vicki Doolin, Mountain View
Caryn Eron, Horseshoe Bend
Nancy Houdek, Horseshoe Bend
Bill Lewis, Mountain Home
Dan Mills, Norfolk
Mickey Spangler, Horseshoe Bend
Ed Stephens, Calico Rock
Kay Stephens, Calico Rock

On that day, 32 inmates read books to a total of 48 children. I mailed the discs and books at the Mountain Home Post Office on October 17. Our Special Thanks to Chaplain Patrick McCown who organizes and supervises The Storybook Project within the Prison.

The Storybook Project is a special project of the Calico Rock Museum Foundation. The Storybook Project mission is to “Keep Families Together Through Reading.” The project coordinator is Susan Varno.
