

Is it advised that I meet the buyer?

After a sufficient number of buyers have signed the NDA, have received and had time to review the CIM, we arrange a tour of the business. This is the moment you get the spotlight, the moment to showcase your accomplishments of what you have built. You know your business inside and out, and are in the best position to answer any question buyer's might have.