POINT SYSTEM FOR SERIES

In order to be eligible for the 2019 Ultimate Ranch Trail Challenge Series awards the competitor must compete in at least 2 of the 3 Ranch Trail Challenges at Bonina, Maxson-Box Stable and B-C Mello Arena. If a competitor chooses to enter all 3 events their top 2 overall performances will be used for their series points. The same horse must be used for all qualifying series points per entry. At the two qualifying events the competitor must enter the following:

- Division Class plus additional class on Course #1, #2, #3 and #4. If more than one additional class is entered, the high score from those classes on that course will be used to combine with the division run score.
- Each of the All-Around Classes including Ranch Riding, Freestyle and Cow Work must be competed in at the qualifying show in their designated division. Should a competitor enter a class more than once, the high scoring run will be the score used for All-Around High Point Awards.
- Courses #1, #2, #3 and #4 will be have a standard 14 obstacles and the total course worth 140 points.
- All-Around Classes will each be scored out of 100pts.

Each show will be worth a total amount of 1,420 points making the total possible points for Award Series 2,840.

TIE BREAKERS - The person with the most 1st place (following with 2nd, 3rd and so on) finishes will break the tie.
