

Sugar Land Solid Waste Program Update - 4/24/2020

Various solid waste programs are scheduled to resume over the coming weeks. City staff continue to communicate with our service providers to ensure that all collection services are restored as quickly as possible.

Republic Services	Status
Garbage Collection	As normally scheduled
Recycling Collection	Resume recycling of collected material on Monday, May 4th according to normal collection schedules
Green Waste	As normally scheduled
Bulky Waste	Resuming on Monday, April 27th according to normal collection schedules
On-Call Household Hazardous Waste	No new collections are being scheduled
On-Call Cardboard Collection	Accepting collection appointments
Citywide Programs	Status
Textile Collection provided by Simple Recycling	Resuming on Monday, April 27th according to normal collection schedules
Tire and Cooking Oil Drop-Off Center	Open during normal business hours

Please visit www.sugarlandtx.gov/SolidWaste for additional information.

