ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Jagan Nath University, NCR, Haryana has been promoted by Jagan Nath Gupta Memorial Education Society, established under Haryana State Legislature Act No. 8 of 2013, and approved under Section 22 of the UGC Act, 1956. It started its operations with effect from academic session 2013-14 on its own 25 acres campus, located at State Highway 22 (Bahadurgarh-Jhajjar Road). The University has launched UG and PG programs in the Faculties of Engineering and Technology, Computer Science & Technology, Architecture, Management, Commerce, Law, Physiotherapy, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences and Education. The University aims to impart high quality education and promote employability among youth. To achieve this aim, the University has developed a reasonably good physical and academic infrastructure, recruited qualified and experienced faculty, state-of-the-art classrooms, laboratories and other facilities. To ensure adequate practical exposure to learners, among other things, the programs are being implemented with an adequate component of industry exposure.

ABOUT FACULTY OF LAW

The University's Faculty of Law started its operation from academic session 2014-2015. The University offers graduate and post graduate programs in law. The main objective of the program is to groom students to acquire profound and exhaustive theoretical and research knowledge that enables them to tackle complex problems in their respective specialized fields and thereby continue towards their objective of attaining excellence. The extensive program provides scope for learning and development through engagement in class room, lecture, project work, seminar, moot court as well as research dissertation.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Crime rate in India has shown growing trend in recent past. There is a need to reform criminal laws to bring them in parity with the demand of times. Law Commission of India plays an important role in the same. Commission invites suggestions from the academicians, researchers, advocates and Judges and even from the citizens of India on this issue, but only few experts provide such suggestions. There are many issues that need to be discussed to achieve the objectives of the Criminal Law Reforms in India. With this background, the Faculty of Law is organizing one-day National Seminar, so as to foster innovations and knowledge in the aforementioned field. Law never remains static and new problems emerge with the passage of time and to control the same Law Reforms are made. The Seminar will focus on the following Sub-themes:

SUB- THEMES

- Trends in registration of First Information Report and Role of Police.
- Laws relating to Habitual Offenders and Recidivists
- Criminal Laws relating to Project against Women and Children
- Acid Attacks: Issues and Challenges
- Adequacy of Present Criminal Laws
- Prison Reforms in India
- New Thoughts and Approaches to Criminal Jurisprudence
- Sufficiency of Law on White Collar Crimes
- Doctrine of the Fruit of the Poisonous Tree: Position in India
- Laws relating to Corporate Criminal Liability
- Corporate Manslaughter in India and position in other countries

CALL FOR PAPERS

Research Papers are invited from the Academicians, Practitioners, Research Scholars and Students on the topics related to the above theme. It is proposed that the selected papers will be published in a special volume in the form of an edited book with ISBN Number.

Authors of selected papers would be given an opportunity to present their papers during sessions on the day of the Seminar.
