Commodore's Report

Happy holidays fellow club members. For most of us this time of the year can be stressful, but also enjoyable one. On Dec 16th the club will be serving prime rib dinner @ $25 per person with all the fixings. We will have a gift exchange being directed by Santa Clause. (Gift $20 max). If a child is in attendance and would like a gift from Santa Clause, please provide one. This time of the year the club gives a cash donation to West Seattle Food Bank and Westside Babies. Please come and enjoy the festivities. Hope to see all of you there. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

I would like to take this time to thank our officers Mike Lesieur (vice commodore), Doreen Rupprecht (rear commodore), Rob Selk (purser) and Judy Giddens (yeoman). Individually and collectively they have put together a very exciting 2016/2017 year.

Something to look forward to is the CRAB FEED Jan 20. We would like to make this a great turnout for our members and their family plus friends. This is a great event. So let everyone know about this and put it on the calendar. More details will come out in Jan Anchorline.

AED We now have one and will be at all the cruises. Our Anchorline editor Dee Selk has graciously volunteered to design and make a flag to be flown by the vessel that hosts it. Ready to fly by the cruising season.

DUES – Don't forget to pay your dues and miss out on the name drawing. The club member needs to be in good standing to win the name drawing which at times can be very substantial. These drawings are held every meeting and the members name drawn is not in attendance the monies are carried over to the next meeting. Active membership dues is $200 and social membership $80.

Looking for a very exciting year,
Commodore Don Lobdell

Vice Commodore's Report

Hello Guys and Gals,

Wow, here it is already December.

Just a reminder to all to mark your calendars for Dec. 16th. Once again Bob and Linda Schrader have volunteered to host our Christmas dinner. Santa will be there also, so you better be good. Hope to see you all there.

Also, circle Jan.20th on the new calendar for Crab feed at the Masonic Temple. What a great way to start off the New Year with all the crab you can eat. More info to come in the January Anchorline, along with info on the Seattle Boat Show dinner.

Thanks

Mike Lesieur (Vice Commodore)

Rear Commodore's Report

Ahoy all West Seattle Yacht Club boaters! While being your new Rear Commodore is a little scary; it is also exciting. Planning the cruises and thinking about all the fun we will have makes me want to get underway next weekend, but this is not the case. There are no formal cruises planned for December or January. But there is boating opportunities if you want to get out on the water.

The Christmas ships are out and cruising. Here is a link of the Seattle Christmas ships schedule if you want to participate. <http://www.nwboatinfo.com/Events-Christmas-Ships.html> In the mean time we will just have to wait until our first cruise of 2017.

The first cruise for WSYC is the Valentine cruise, Feb. 10-12, and it's a land cruise at that. This year we will be going to LaConner, which is a great little town. Lots of shops and great restaurants to explore are within walking distance of where we will be staying. I will be getting more information out to you in the January newsletter, as to reservations and the schedule of events. Stay tuned!

In the mean time make sure you RSVP for the Christmas dinner on December 16th by the 13th and save the date for the annual Crab feed (January 20th). The boat show is at the end of January and then we will be off and running for 2017. I hope to have cruise cards out by January or maybe even for the December meeting.

Thanks again for having me as your Rear Commodore.

Doreen Rupprecht
