

2019 Dogwood Art & Photography Contest

Celebrating Paducah's Dogwood Trail

Sponsored by the Paducah Civic Beautification Board
Coordinated & Judged by the Paducah School of Art & Design

In celebration of Paducah's upcoming 2019 Dogwood Trail, the Paducah Civic Beautification Board and the Paducah School of Art & Design are sponsoring an art and photography contest with entries accepted April 22 – April 24, 2019. Entries will be exhibited at the Paducah School of Art & Design April 30 – May 10, 2019. Conditions for entry:

- The subject of all entries must be dogwood trees/flowers.
- No entry fees.
- 1st place winners in both the Art and Photography categories will receive $100, 2nd place - $50 and 3rd place - $25.
- Artists may submit ONE ENTRY PER CATEGORY: Art and Photography.
- Artwork (2-D, all mediums accepted) and photographs (any size) must be framed and ready to hang with a wire or other hanging device already in place. Sawtooth hangers are strictly prohibited.
- The artist agrees to allow the Dogwood Art & Photography Contest to photograph the loaned artwork for the purposes of documentation, research, publication, education and/or publicity unless specifically prohibited from doing so by the artist in writing.
- Requests for purchase shall be directed to the artist.
- Art and photography works may NOT be withdrawn before the closing date of the exhibit for any reason without the written consent of the artist and Dogwood Art & Photography Contest.
- Entries should be delivered to the Paducah School of Art & Design, 905 Harrison Street, Paducah, KY between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. April 22 through April 24.
- Judging will take place the week of April 26 with winners notified by April 30, 2019.

Additional Information: Rachael King, CBB (270) 559-7885 or Laura Kauffman, CBB (270) 443-5552