By the power of your Spirit lift us to your presence, where we may be still and know that you are God. Now we pray as our Lord has taught us, saying . . . Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.*

They can represent the lost moments of our lives, Father, spent in indifference or rebellion. Yet you love us still. Help us to grasp that love once again in the fullness of our hearts, that our lives may be claimed anew this day for our God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.*
