

AFRICAN DIASPORA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL WASHINGTON DC AUG 24-AUG 26, 2012

FILLING THE GAP

GOETHE INSTITUTE - 812 Seventh Street, NW

SUNDAY, AUGUST 26 @ 3PM

Director: Tyrone Young, 2010, 83 min

USA

Conceived as an effort to alter the way African-American children see themselves and their ancestors, this docu-drama highlights the inventive and inspired contributions of African-Americans in the 1840s, the period leading to the Civil War in American History. Developed in collaboration with Florida-based historian Mary Fears to produce a historically accurate portrayal of the brave, compelling lives of African American skilled craftsmen, artists, inventors, and Union spies, the film is certain to enthrall young audiences with this overlooked facet of history. Excellent for K-12 education.

ABOUT ADIFF

The African Diaspora International Film Festival is a 501-c3 not for profit organization that presents an eclectic mix of foreign, independent, classic and urban films focusing on the human experience of people of color all over the world through an extraordinary range of subjects and artistic approaches. Created in 1993 in New York City, ADIFF has long been delighting audiences with U.S. and world premieres of independent films, including features, documentaries, animation, and shorts.

Films from Jamaica, Suriname, the UK, the US and Egypt will screen during the 6th ADIFF-DC.

Weedend pass $40; Opening Night $15;
Regular Price $11; Students and Seniors $9.
All screenings at the Goethe Institute, 812 Seventh Street, N.W.

For a full festival schedule and advance tickets, please visit www.NYADIFF.org