Classes Need Legal Mentors

We have a sophomore AP class on the New Orleans Westbank that would like to compete in the 2012 We the People State Competition in January. They need a lawyer or judge that can visit them during their 9 am class once a week for a few minutes. The mentor will be asked for legal input and general guidance. Having a mentor will greatly inspire these students and increase their motivation towards learning.

We also have two senior AP classes, one on the New Orleans Westbank and one in Metairie that we would like to place with a mentor.

We the People is a nationally acclaimed civics curriculum that focuses on the Constitution. The culminating activity, for which these classes are aspiring, is a simulated congressional hearing. View a four minute video on this program.
