THE AMAZING PARISH PRAYER

Heavenly Father, We thank you for gathering us together and calling us to serve as your disciples. You have charged us through Your Son, Jesus, with the great mission of evangelizing and witnessing your love to the world. Send your Holy Spirit to guide us as we discern Your will for the spiritual renewal of our parish. Give us strength, courage, and clear vision as we use our gifts to serve You. We entrust our parish family to the care of Mary, our mother, and ask for her intercession and guidance as we strive to bear witness to the Gospel and build an amazing parish. Amen

MASS READING RELFECTION

June 9, 2019

1st Reading Acts 2:1-11
[Coming of the Spirit]

The Bible, especially the New Testament, should never be read in the past tense. It is God’s word to you and me now! Jesus is alive. His Spirit is with every Christians. This is the meaning of the Christ event, meaningfully Celebrated at Easter, Ascension, and Pente-cost, three aspects of the one mystery. Luke follows the early Christians custom of celebrating the communication of the Spirit at the conclusion of the “great fifty days,” our Pentecost. Hence, he relates the outpouring of the Spirit as we have it in the First Reading. John puts the communication of the Spirit on Easter Day (Gospel). The gift of the Spirit is one with the risen Lord Jesus. (See theme for the 7th Sunday of Easter, p.1216) Notice that both traditions stress that the Christian message is not just for the Jews but for all people.

2nd Reading Rom 8:8-17
[Living with Christ]

The freedom that we have obtained in Christ makes the dominant principle of action in us no longer death-dealing sin (i.e., the “flesh” or egotism) but the life-giving Spirit (Jn 3:5-6). The Spirit places us in a filial relationship with God enabling us to invoke him, as Jesus did, with the name of Father (Abba) and makes us joint heirs of eternal life with Christ, sharing the whole life of Christ including the resurrection. However, this reality worked by the Spirit is always dependent on our daily cooperation with his grace. To share in Christ glory, we must also share in his suffering with the aid of the Spirit.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE PARISH

Pentecost Sunday

“ They were all filled with the Holy Spirit”

Theme: The Holy Spirit, Gift of the Father

A full-rigged ship under an unfurled sail makes a beautiful picture, but it does not move without wind. Without “the breath of life,” human beings cannot perform. An artist needs inspiration. The “ruah Yahweh”—the breath, animating Spirit, of God—was given to us at baptism. On the fiftieth day after Easter (Passover) the Jews celebrated the giving of the Mosaic Law at Sinai and the establishment of Israel as God’s people. At Pentecost we celebrate the giving of the Spirit to God’s people and, related to it, the establishment of the new Israel, the Church. The Spirit, whom the Lord Jesus sends from the Father, will remind us of all that the Lord has taught us. He will animate us and help us to know and understand our religion not just with our mind but also with our hearts and souls (Jn 14:26).

For a more profound insight into the mystery of Pentecost, we should refer to the introduction to both Easter Time, p 371, and the Pentecost Vigil, p481. Pentecost marks the conclusion of the “great fifty days,” Easter Time.
