

Crossing County Lines

(performance 11:30 am, August 31)

Crossing County Lines had a few changes to the band, and we're starting a new page! CCL began through the Historic Masonic Theatre with the Jr. Virginia Opry in August, 2017. We've had an amazing experience playing with each other, special guests, and of course jamming and singing with all of our fans! We have recently written original songs, sung old ones and new ones, and enjoyed playing with so many other bands that we meet. We hope you all come out to see us. We are so excited to continue our band that is progressing louder and better than ever!!
